

Your 2017-18 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called "verification." Federal law requires that the University of Indianapolis (UIndy) checks the accuracy of your reported FAFSA data by utilizing this worksheet along with your 2015 IRS federal tax return transcript information. It may also be necessary for you to submit additional verification documents. No further action can be taken on your request for financial aid including all federal, state, or need-based University funds until you submit the required information and complete this process. An official award letter will be sent once your aid eligibility can be established. Some FAFSAs are selected for verification after an award letter is sent. In these instances, verification information must still be collected and your aid eligibility reevaluated before your award status is final.

If there are differences between your FAFSA information and the verification documents, UIndy will make the necessary corrections electronically and submit them to the Federal Processing Center. You then will receive a Student Aid Report Acknowledgement from the Federal Processing Center to inform you of the corrections we made. Your financial aid awards may be adjusted because of the correction process.

SECTION A: DEPENDENT STUDENT INFORMATION

Student's Name _____ Student ID# A
Student's Date of Birth _____ Email _____ Phone _____

SECTION B: VERIFICATION of 2015 INCOME INFORMATION

Instructions: Each parent in the household, as well as you, the student, must provide 2015 income information. For tax filers, although the best way to verify income is typically by using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (IRS DRT) that is part of FAFSA on the Web, the tool is no longer available for 2017-18 use. If you were able to use the tool while still functional, in most cases, no further documentation is needed to verify 2015 income information that was transferred into the student's FAFSA using the IRS DRT if that information was not changed by the FAFSA filer.

Please consider which of the following options best fits your current 2015 tax filing status and select the best method for verification:

- You and/or your parents have used the IRS DRT in FAFSA on the Web to transfer 2015 IRS income tax return information into the student's FAFSA, or
- Your parents filed separate IRS income tax returns in 2015 and thus would have been unable to use the IRS DRT in FAFSA on the Web. You will instead provide either a 2015 IRS Tax Return Transcript for each parent or a signed and dated copy of each parent's 2015 tax return form, along with your student 2015 IRS Tax Return Transcript or 2015 signed and dated tax return form, IRS DRT use, or Nontax Filer Proof of Income form with attachments. Note: For parents and students who provided 2015 IRS Tax Return Transcripts during verification in 2016-17, you will NOT be asked to provide copies in 2017-18.
- Your parents filed a joint 2015 IRS income tax return and have had a change in marital status after December 31, 2015. You will instead provide either a 2015 IRS Tax Return Transcript for each parent listed in the FAFSA and attach parent W2s, or a signed and dated copy of each parent's 2015 tax return form with parent W2s, along with your student 2015 IRS Tax Return Transcript or 2015 signed and dated tax return form, IRS DRT use, or Nontax Filer Proof of Income form with attachments.
- Neither you nor your parent(s) filed 2015 taxes, and were not required to file, and will instead provide income information with your Nontax Filer Proof of Income Form.

A 2015 IRS Tax Return Transcript may be obtained through:

- Online request: Go to www.irs.gov, and under the "Tools" heading on the IRS homepage, click "Get a Tax Transcript." Click "Get Transcript by MAIL." Make sure to request the "IRS Tax Return Transcript" and NOT the "IRS Tax Account Transcript."
- Telephone request: 1-800-908-9946

Note: For those tax filers with unusual circumstances such as an amended 2015 federal tax form, experienced IRS identity theft, or were granted an IRS tax extension beyond the automatic six-month extension period, please contact UIndy's Office of Financial Aid for specific instructions.
