How It Looks From Above

DEDICATION

In loving tribute, we dedicate this book to the memory of Mrs. Ida May Cunningham, who served as matron of Buxton Hall from 1939 to 1947.

"Mother" Cunningham's words of wisdom, patience and understanding, genial personality, and practical philosophy of life live on in the memory of all who knew her. The love, holiness and inspiration which radiated from her life made those who were privileged to be in her company feel as though the atmosphere were hallowed by the presence of God. Truly, we are all better for her having "passed this way."

THE PRESIDENT

In March of 1945 I. Lynd Esch became president of Indiana Central College. Three years of progress since then testify to his success. But being successful is not the only attribute our president has shown. He has impressed us even more strongly with his friendly spirit of helpfulness, his genuineness, his fineness of Christian character. He has been not only our president but also our counselor and our inspiration. We look forward with high hopes to the future of Central, and we rely with confidence on the guidance of our president, I. Lynd Esch.

Highlights

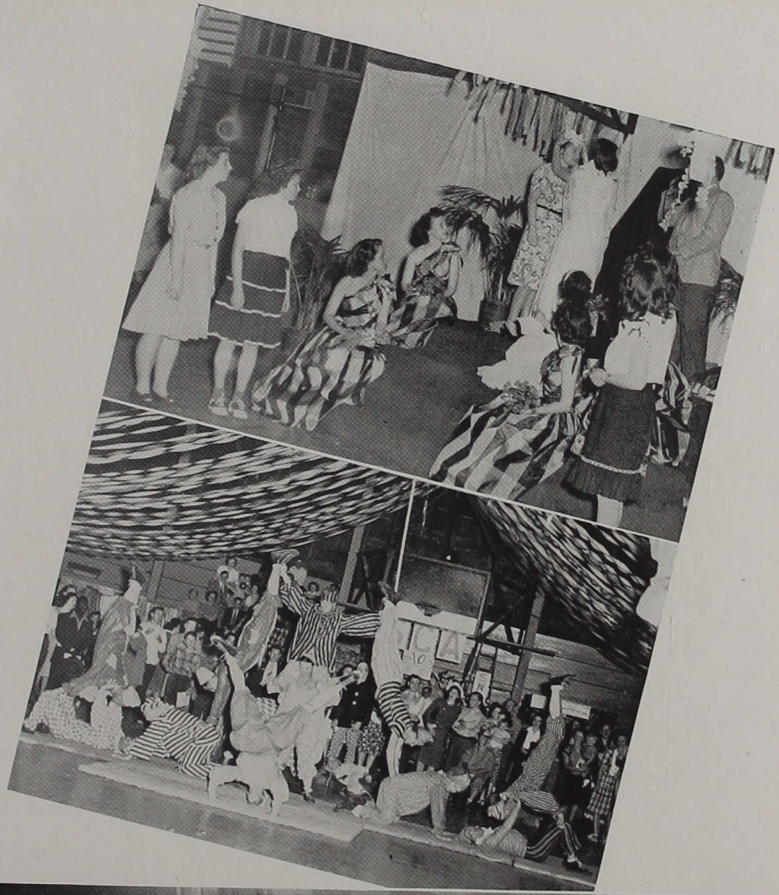

Eileen Holzhausen Durant was elected by the student body last spring to reign as the Campus Queen for the year 1947-48. She was crowned by Mary Ida Parr, retiring Queen, at the May festival May 23, 1947. Eileen, a petite, brown-haired home economics major, has added household chores to her extra-curricular activities.

MAY FESTIVAL

The gym was full of streamers, booth barkers, "ohs" and "ahs," and top-rate confusion, but that was the May Carnival. Les Eleves (the Art Club) wove in and out among the crowd selling nosegays, and the Freshmen actually sold "Surrey Rides." You could go fishing or have your fortune told or do any of the other exciting things that there were to do. Clowns and Indians and other performers entertained the Queen and her court while the spectators looked on. The high-light of the evening was the coronation of the new Campus Queen by the retiring Queen, Mary Ida Parr. In typical carnival spirit the festival ended with an old-fashioned cake-walk and lucky door prizes.

BIG MIXER

Howard Wentz and Susie Gaylor share an ice-cream bar after being named typical freshmen boy and girl at the Big Mixer in September.

FORMAL RECEPTION

The literary societies welcome new students at the Formal Reception. Faculty and students enjoy refreshment and conversation at this annual event.

STUNT NIGHT

As a part of Stunt night the junior men formed a chorus line. They are, in disguise, John Wallen, Clarence Yates, George Warheit, Bert Keck, Don Fleener, Rus Robbins, Ed Pellett, Fred Yost, Lewis Brown.

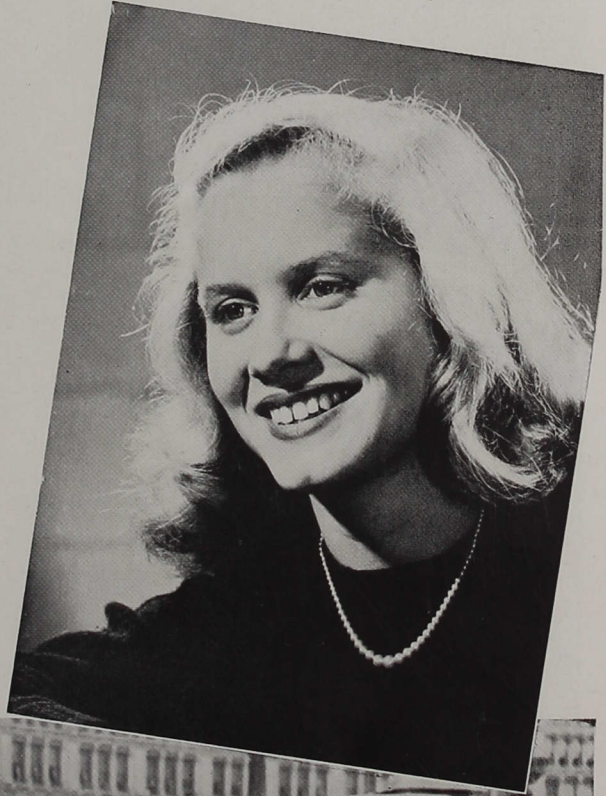

DEEP ARE THE ROOTS

Roberta Good and Arthur Winn dramatize the tender situation in the Alpha Psi Omega major production, DEEP ARE THE ROOTS, a drama of the south.

HOMECOMING

The members of the "C" Association elected Alvera Baldwin, a blonde, blue-eyed sophomore, to reign over the Homecoming Celebration, October 12, 1947. This five feet, four Miss hails from Fort Wayne, Indiana. Alvera led a float parade through downtown Indianapolis, and presented a trophy to the Junior Class for the best float. Other events of the day included a Founder's Day program, Dad's Day, and a victorious football game with Rose Poly.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The senior class play given in June 1947 was THREE'S A FAMILY. Eulene Reed caused quite a sensation as the old maid aunt.

ON THE AIR

Honoring Coach Angus Nicoson and the Greyhound football team, Gene Kelly, prominent sportscaster, interviews the coach after the winning of the Hoosier Conference football championship.

BUCKET BRIGADE

WOLFGANG'S PROTEGES

The string ensemble under the supervision of the Music department presented several programs. The members are Gertrude Fields, Betty Lou Ratliff, Dorothy Strickler, Ruth Crosby, Mr. Edelmann, and Martha Mennen.

Carol Cox, junior, was elected Queen of the '48 Oracle by the subscribers to the yearbook. Carol, a brown-haired, brown-eyed lass, comes from Tecumseh, Michigan. Majoring in English and French, she plans to enter the teaching profession.

Barbara Hotz and Lucille Brown were the runner-ups in the election. Lucy is a junior and Barbara is a member of the 1950 Class.

FRESHMEN WALKOUT

Freshman initiation in September meant a barefoot hike from Garfield park for the freshmen boys. George Warheit observes the freshmen after their pedantic antic.

STUNT NIGHT

Harley Griffith, as the light-house keeper's daughter, ascends the winding staircase to the top of the lighthouse. This was the sophomore skit at Stunt night in October.

CLEAN-UP DAY

Spring cleaning of the campus demanded the assistance of faculty and student body alike. President Esch and some students rake up leaves to help beautify our campus.

THANKSGIVING BANQUET

A Tech High School comedian entertains guests at the annual Thanksgiving banquet in November.

SADIE HAWKINS DAY

Leap Week officially opened with the Sadie Hawkins Race on February 6th. As usual the end of the race found the I.C.C. men in the hands of merciless coeds. They don't seem to mind too much.

BRASS SEXTET

The brass sextet is a new musical organization. The members are Jim Kindred, Keith Brown, Mr. Edelmann, director, Wayne Smith, Vera Stubbs, Ed Pellett, and Malcolm Black.

MOONLIGHT SERENADE

Girls from Wilmore Hall are serenading Men's Hall. From the expressions on their faces, someone must have hit a sour note.

Climaxing a brilliant grid season, Angus Nicoson's spirited Greyhounds captured the first Hoosier College Conference football championship with seven wins and only one loss.

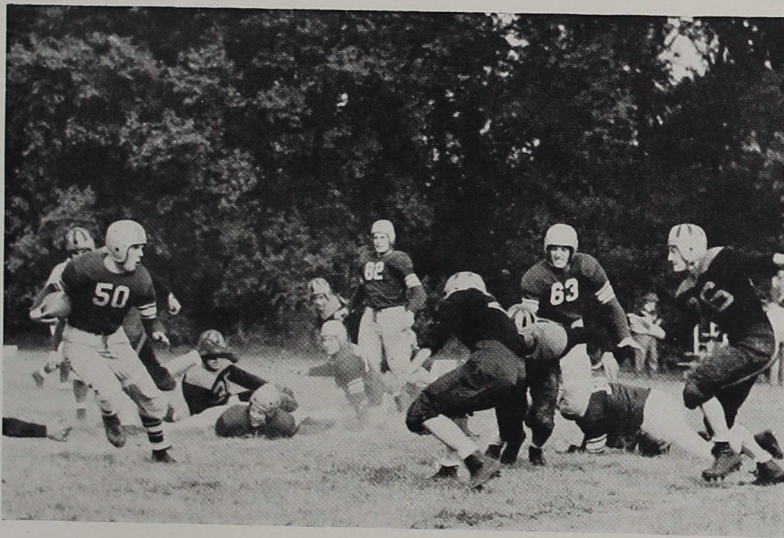

The Greyhounds were packed with an enormous fund of varsity and reserve power, and yielded only to Franklin College in the second of eight games. In the final start, Indiana Central downed the hitherto undefeated Panthers of Hanover College to decide the conference championship.

Much of the success of the team was a result of the skill and vitality of Coaches Nicoson and Linson. They instilled in their boys a fighting spirit that never deserted them throughout the season.

This championship is particularly significant because football returned to Central only last year after an absence of many years.

After a rigorous season in which Central Hoopsters played twenty-four games and won sixteen, the conference ratings placed the hard-fighting team in second position.

The Greyhounds averaged 64.3 points a game, the largest figure in the history of the school. Probably the biggest thrill of the season came in a 79 to 52 decision over Anderson College, conference champions.

Woody McBride and Dwight Swails, who led their team in scoring, were third and fifth respectively in the state-wide contest.

McBride (90) sinks one against North Central, as Harley Griffith (96) looks on.

"Windy" Roberts connects with a one-hander from the side as Bill McGrath moves in for the follow-up.

Paced by Jim Langford, the Indiana Central Cross Country team proved a threat last fall to rival colleges. While they won only one out of five regular meets, they made a good showing in the Conference meet and in the state session. Langford earned the distinction of first place in the Hoosier Conference meet held November 1, at Canterbury.

While the sport is still comparatively new at Central, the harriers look forward to a more successful season next year.

Indiana Central	20	Hanover	11
Indiana Central	4	Franklin	5
Indiana Central	2	Indiana State	12
Indiana Central	13	Wabash	5

The baseball team of Indiana Central retained its excellent record of previous years by adding to their victories the conference championship of 1947.

Manford Kistler pitched seven games for seven wins, and with the cooperation of the entire team, he, Noland, and Ruth won nine games out of fifteen tries. A precedent seems to have been established in the past few years of winning the title, and the probability of future titles is hopeful.

Grosskopf running 1/2 mile.

Two regular meets and two combined meets constituted Indiana Central's track season last spring. At Franklin, Central's trackmen bowed to their host with a score of $98\frac{1}{2}$ to $32\frac{1}{2}$. A six way meet at Rose Poly found Central in sixth place, and a three way meet at Canterbury placed the Greyhounds last. The remaining meet, at Hanover, proved Hanover victorious by a $94\frac{1}{2}$ to $35\frac{1}{2}$ score.

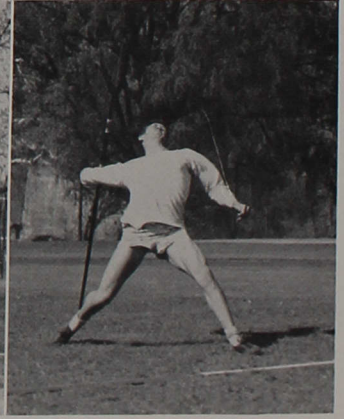

"Firsts" were obtained by Grosskopf in the mile and 880; Brenneman in the 100 yard dash; Pippin in the pole vault; Cummings in discus; and F. Fisher in javelin. Other tracksters were Ival Witsman, Wendell Witsman, Merrill Hoban, George Warheit, Paul Whiteman, and William Skinner.

MEN BEHIND THE TEAMS

The coaching staff of Indiana Central is headed by Angus Nicoson, formerly of Franklin Township high school. Beginning his collegiate coaching career just this year, Nicoson has been assisted by J. Louis Gehr, track coach, and Ray Linson of Southport high school, who aided in football tactics.

Milton Truesdale, Eugene DeBaun, and Edwin Pruitt were the student managers for the past sport's year. Their cheerful attitude was a moral support to the teams in victory and defeat.

Girls' intramural and intercollegiate sports are participated in, on a large scale at Central. The basketball and volley ball teams, coached by Lois Fouts, played several games, traveling along with the varsity squad to colleges throughout the state.
