HOMECOMING 1970

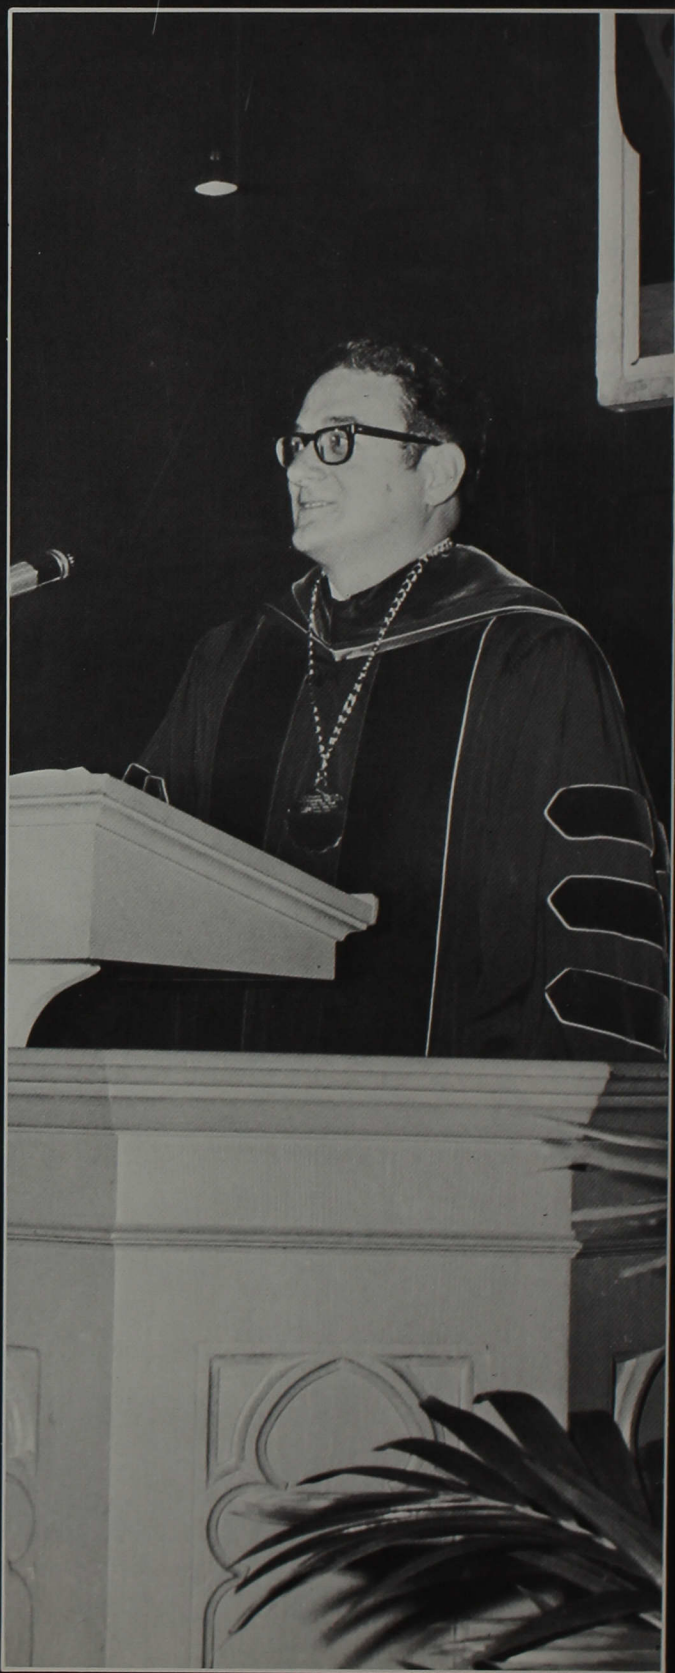

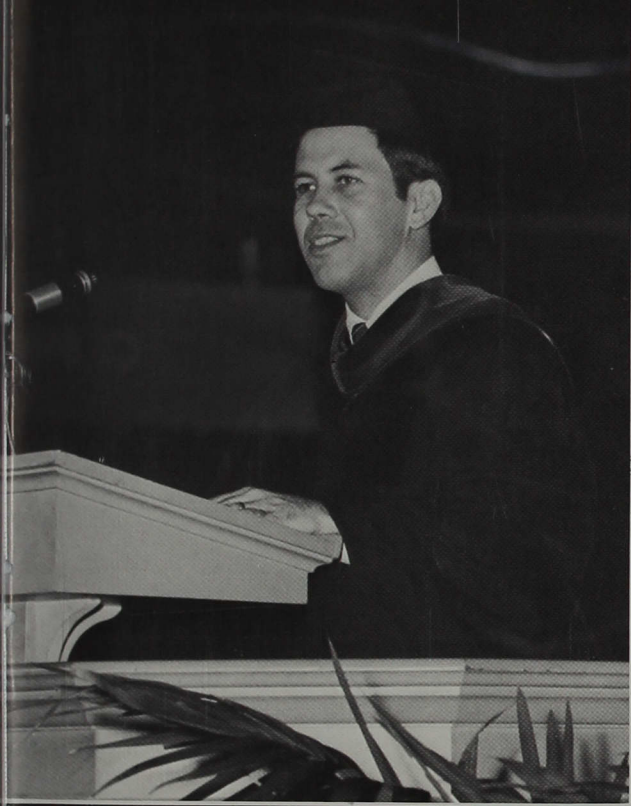

President Gene Sease presents Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Key with a plaque of appreciation for their donation which allowed for the completion of the new Key Stadium.

Inauguration of Gene E. Sease Oct. 7th, 1971

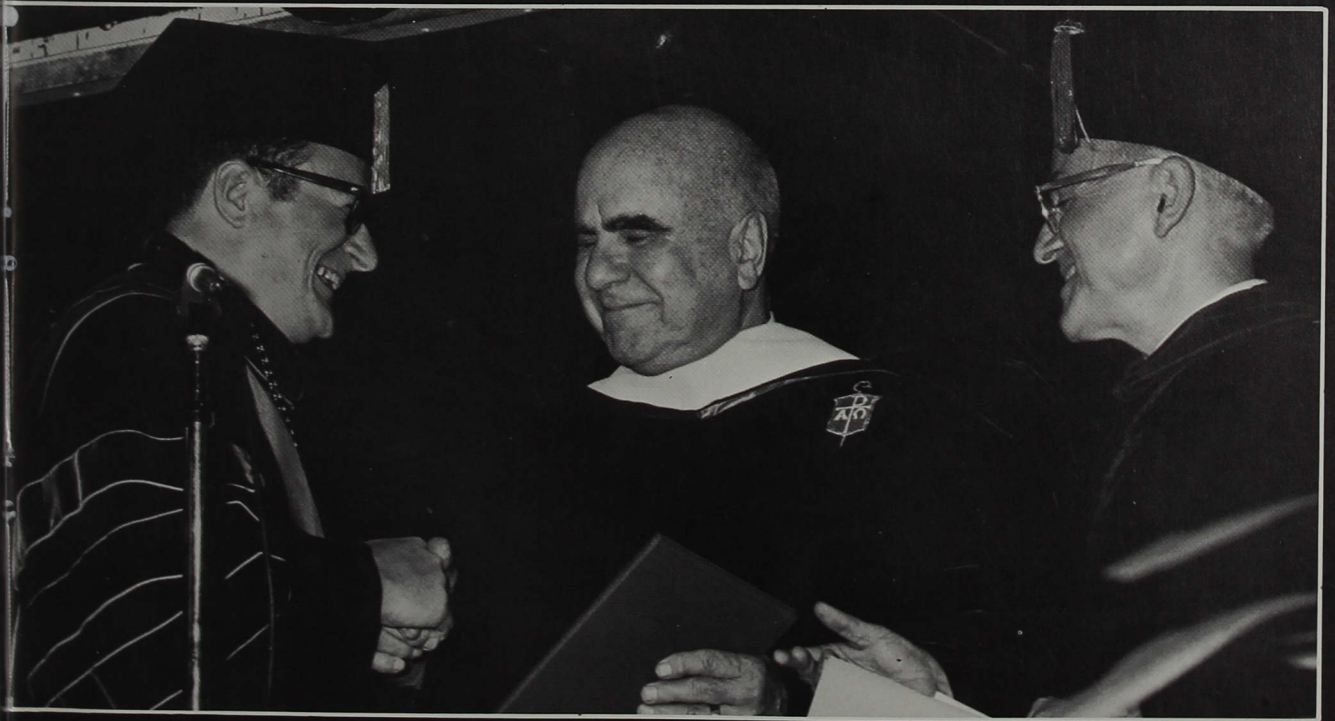

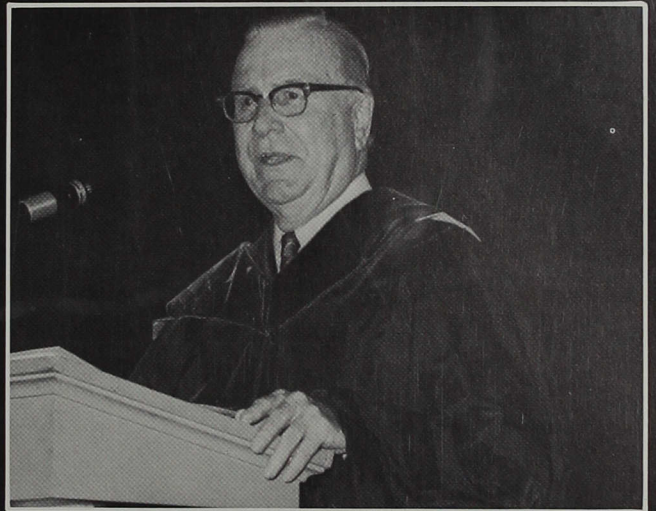

"Much blame for the present confusion in education is placed on the lack of coherent educational philosophy. A major task confronting us is to explore our reasons for being and to build a sound educational philosophy for the future. With due respect for the past, we must program for the 70's and 80's. Old patterns are not adequate for these new days."

President Sease

"Colleges are created and supported by society for the common good. While we argue about whether they are the property of students, faculty, or their supporting constituency or spend time disputing about their governance, we neglect the greater responsibility to society."

"I harbor no illusions that education is the panacea to cure all the world's ills—too long, too many have espoused that myth—but education should be committed to build a better world. My faith is unquenchable that our tomorrows can be better than our yesterdays—no man dare occupy this position that does not possess that hope and cherish that desire! Contrary to what much news we read has led us to believe, most students are determined to build, not to destroy. There has been too much negativism, pessimism, and hand-wringing. Prophets of hope need to hold high the lamp of learning to balance the gloom which is demoralizing our nation and youth. When hope is gone and dreams are shattered, life loses meaning. What I propose is a philosophy that embraces hope and a willingness to work to find positive means to accomplish worthwhile goals."

Brown County

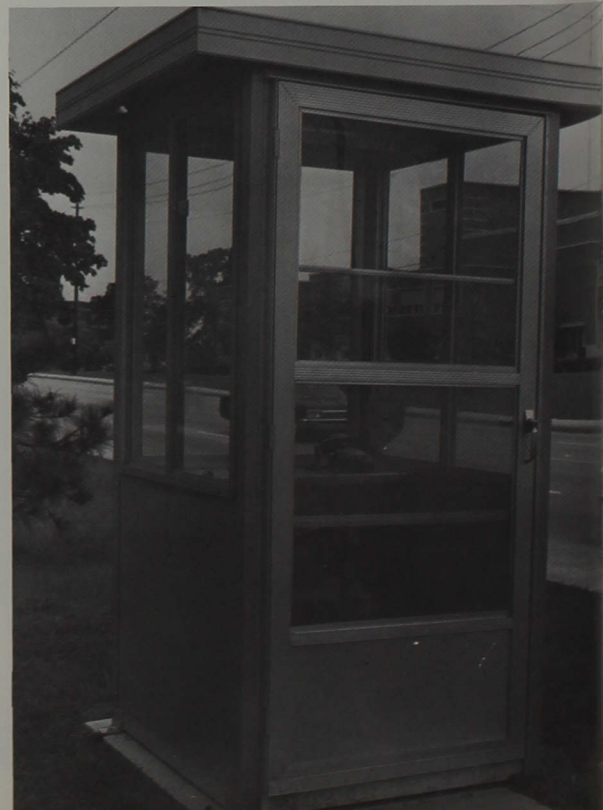

Offering the students a day away from the routine of classes and cafeteria food, Brown County Day is Central's day in the sun. Although the weather was overcast, students still enjoyed volleyball, singing and a warm meal. The park provided tandems and horseback riding for everyone's recreation and a game reserve and look-out tower for all who had forgotten their money. Central's "Big Family" attitude is exemplified in a variety of special events. B.C. was the family's picnic in the park.

"In the future, with the new administration, I'm sure Indiana Central will be able to solve many of it's basic problems. In order for it to become a great school, it must become more aware of the outside world apart from the college and prepare us to deal with problems we will encounter after graduation; problems within our own communities."

STUDENT LIFE

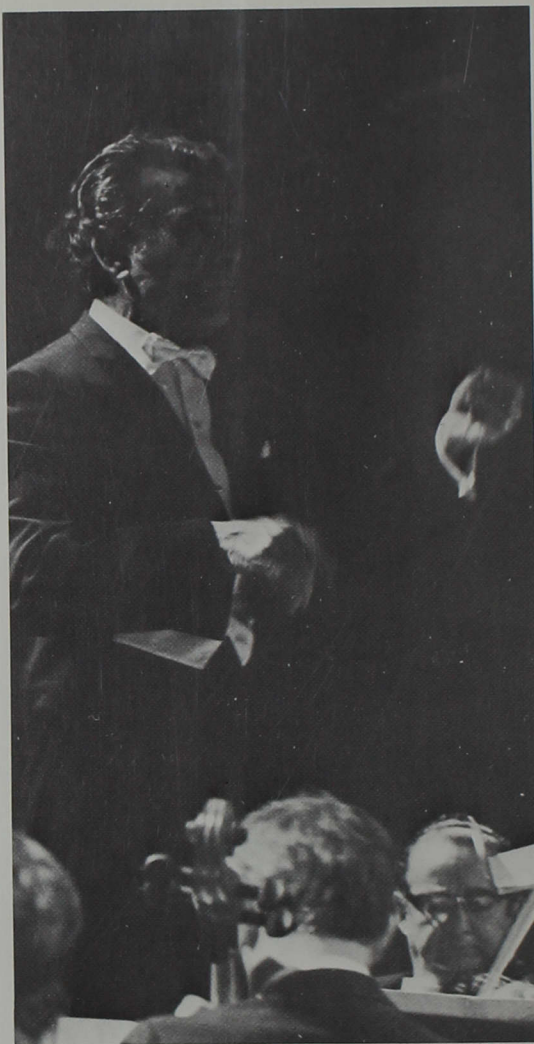

"I'm learning what I want to learn but the school interferes too much in my private life. If Central is going to stay alive, it will have to give the students more freedom."

Don Mathis

"Scholastically the preparation is good. The rest is such a hassle to break away from the traditions; I think if Central does not change it will eventually appeal only to the students who need restricting."

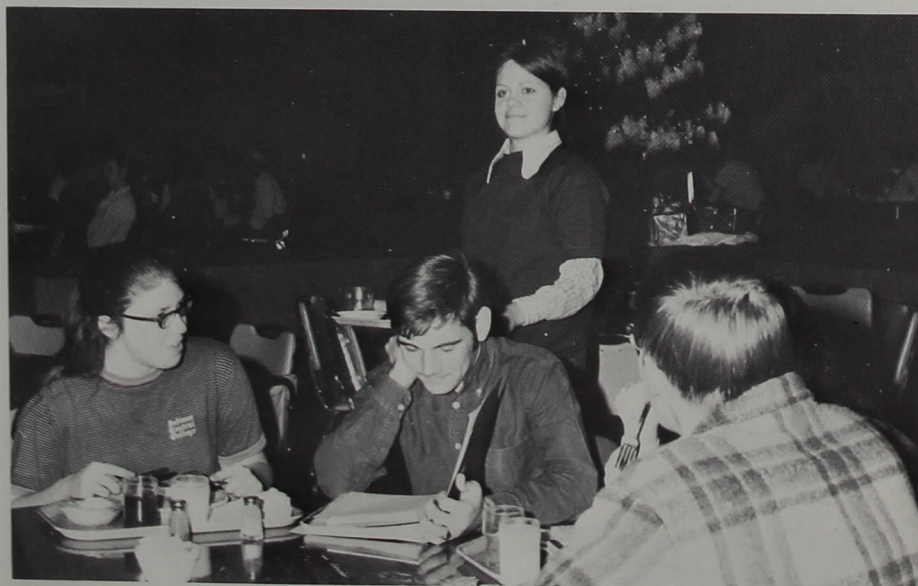

Debby Gregory

"I like the academic preparation. It's true there isn't much social life, but that doesn't bother me."

Phil Eads

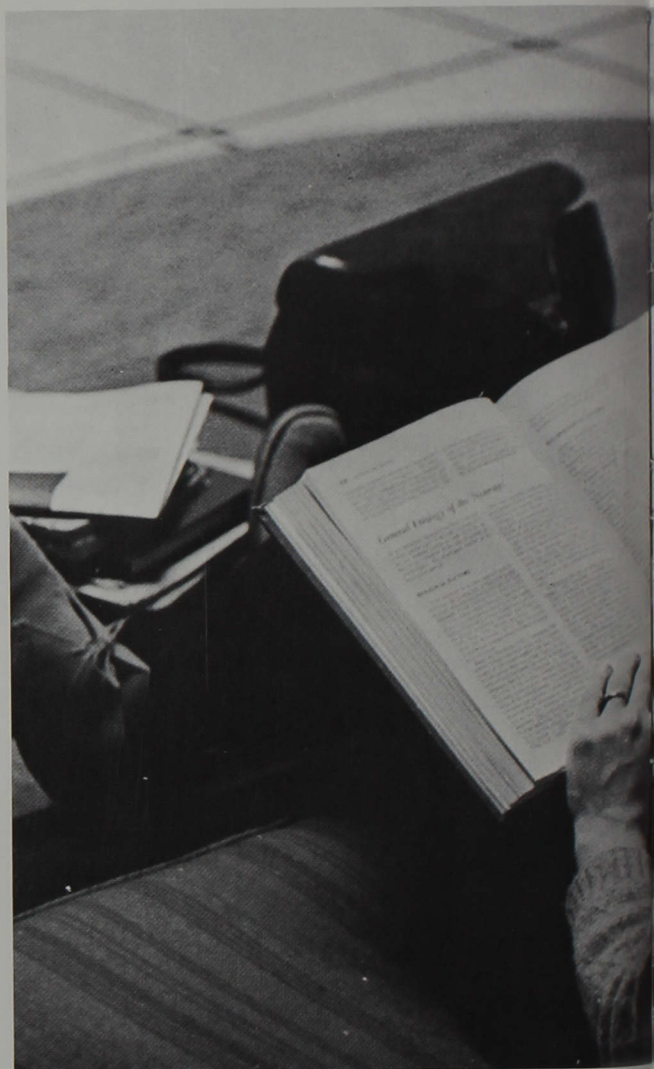

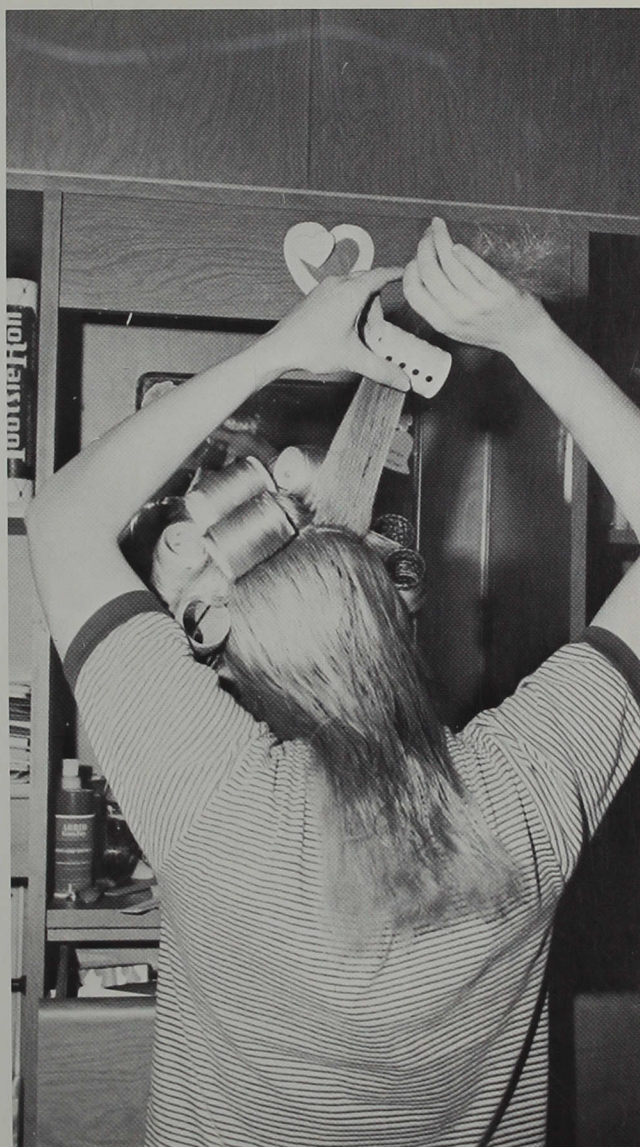

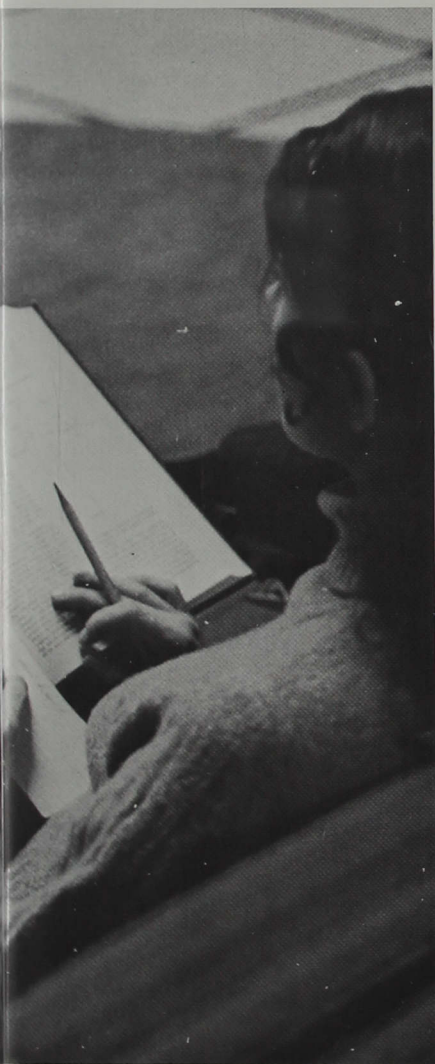

"Indiana Central is a good school. It has its bad points; it has its good points. Every college and university has its short comings, how could Central be any different?"

Gordon Burton

"Mostly my frustrations are my own fault, in not knowing what I want from life."

Dennis Walker

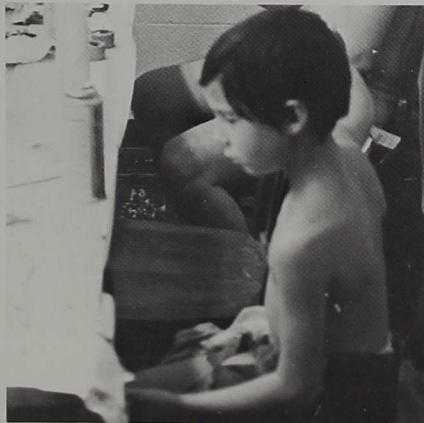

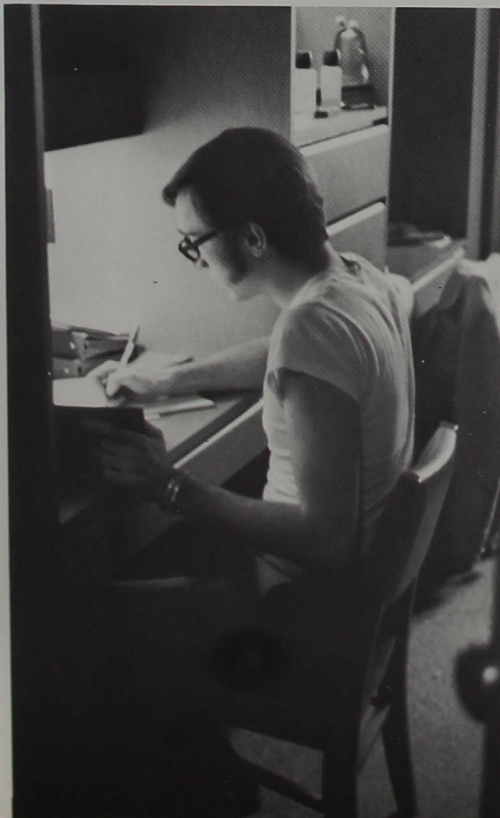

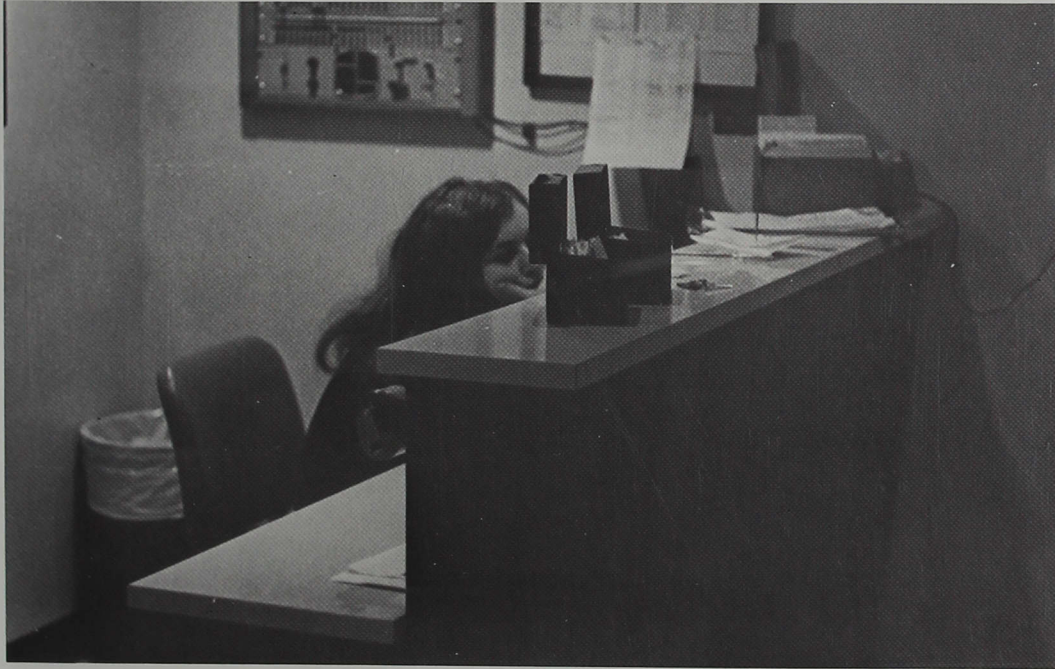

"I think Central is a fine school. I like it. I wish I had more time to devote to my major."

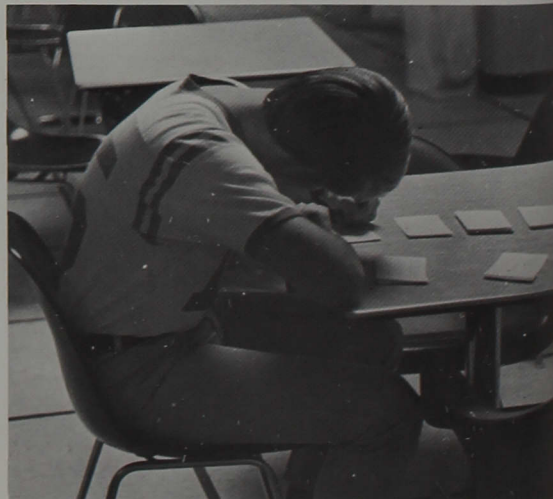

Beth Dugan

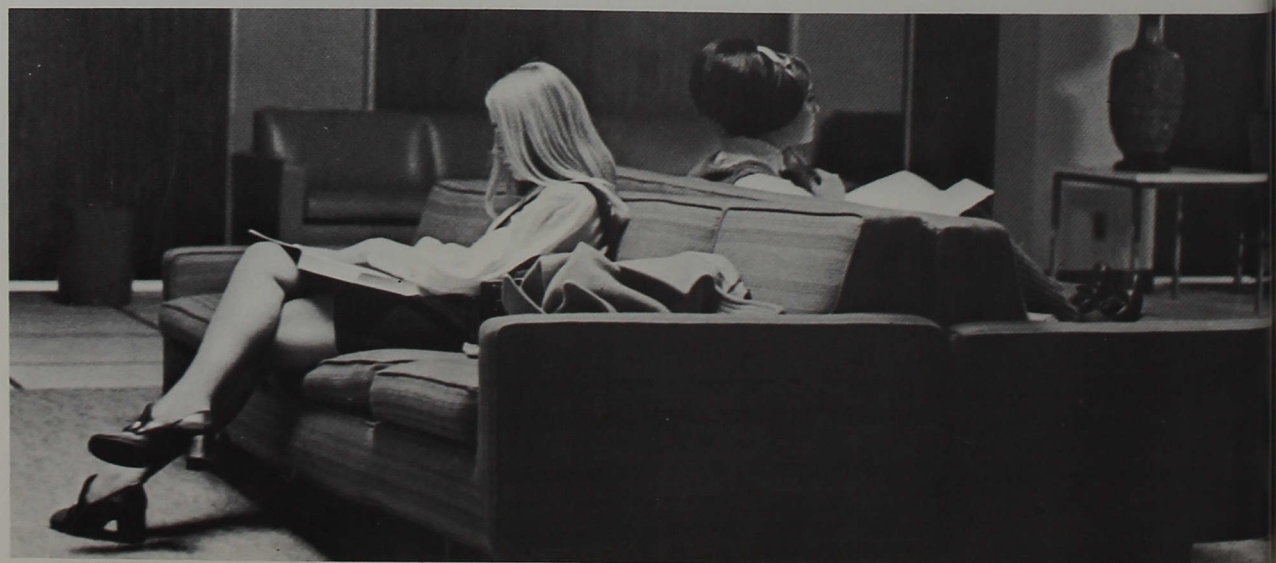

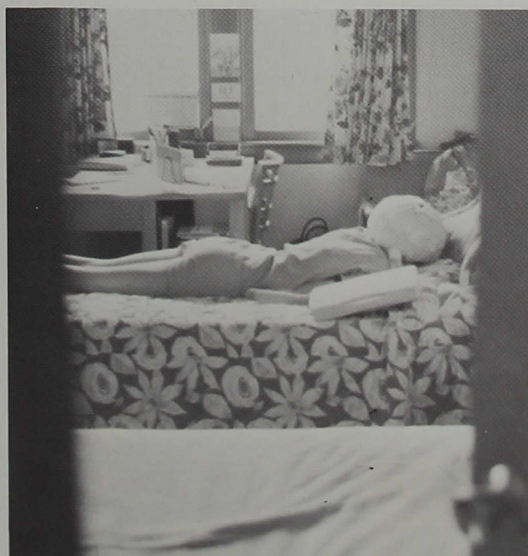

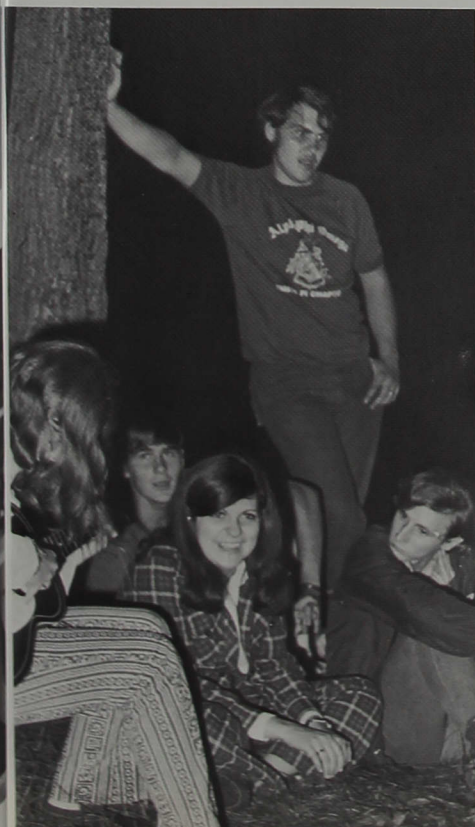

"Academically the training at Indiana Central is excellent. Socially, our development follows the tradition of Puritans. I had more freedom in high school."

Karlene Nussbaum

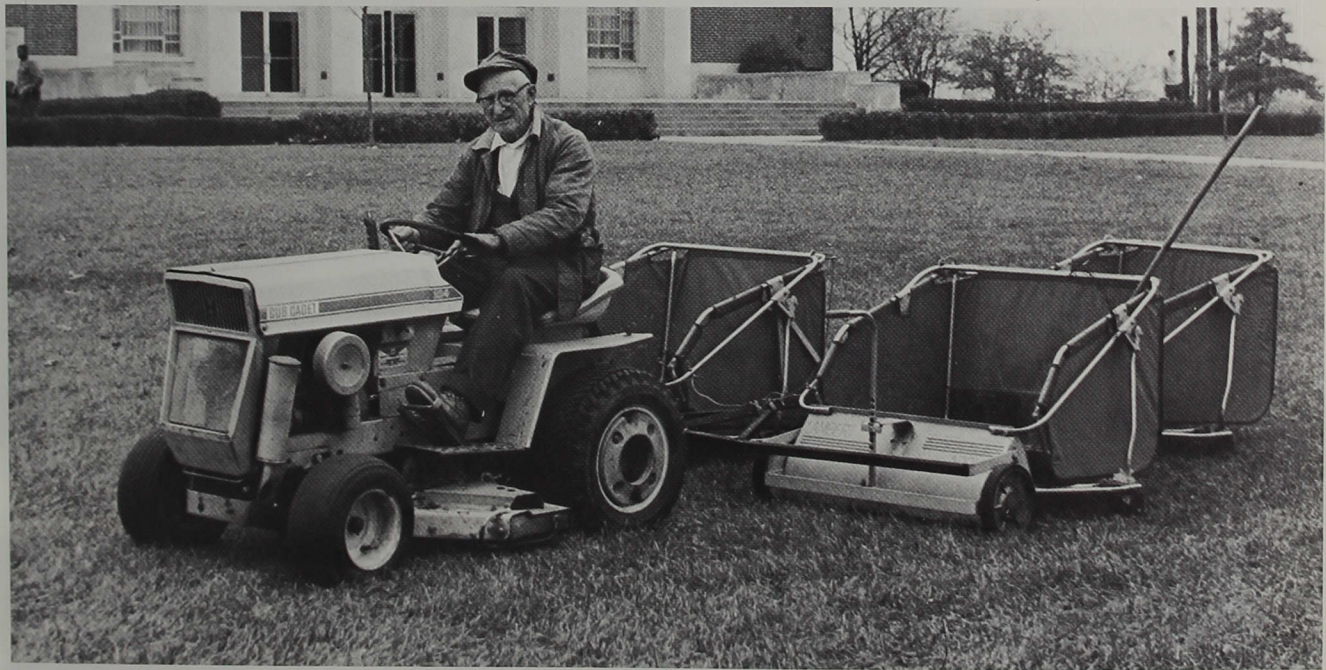

"By the time students reach college age, I believe schools should let each student make their own decisions and live their own lives. Responsibility can be acquired only through living and learning from mistakes."

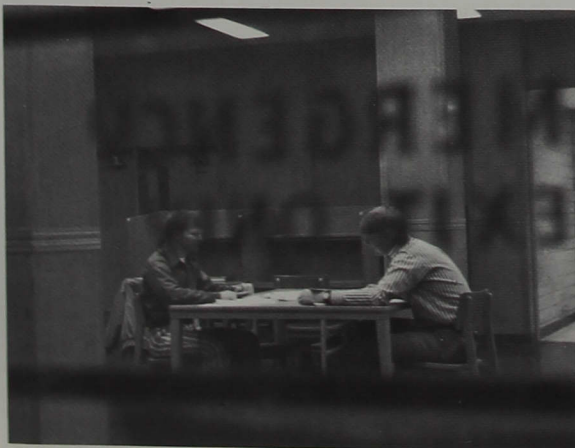

Mark Williams

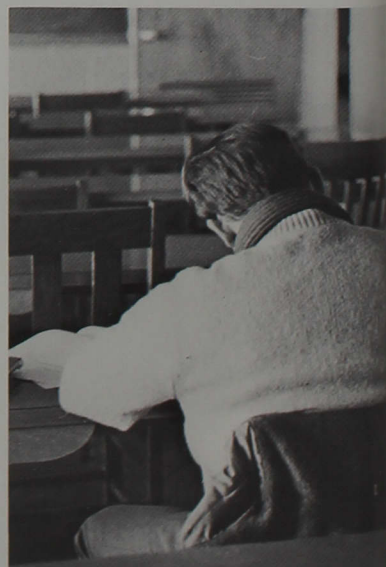

"Pretty well satisfied."

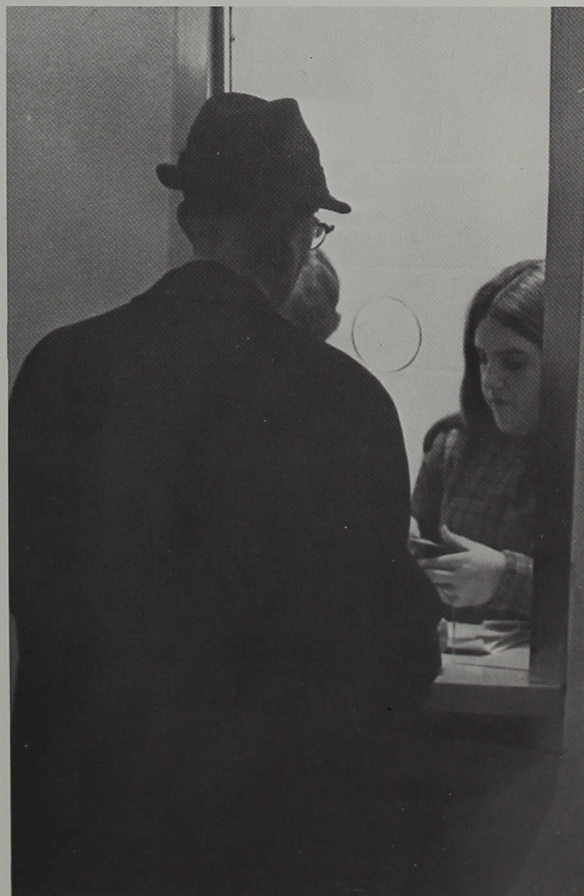

Janice Busald

"I think it's stifling to individual responsibility. At Central there is not enough freedom to exercise individual Choice." The school needs to recognize the students as adults."

Susie Gossett

"I like Indiana Central very much. I think the people are beautiful and everyone is so friendly. I've never felt alone."

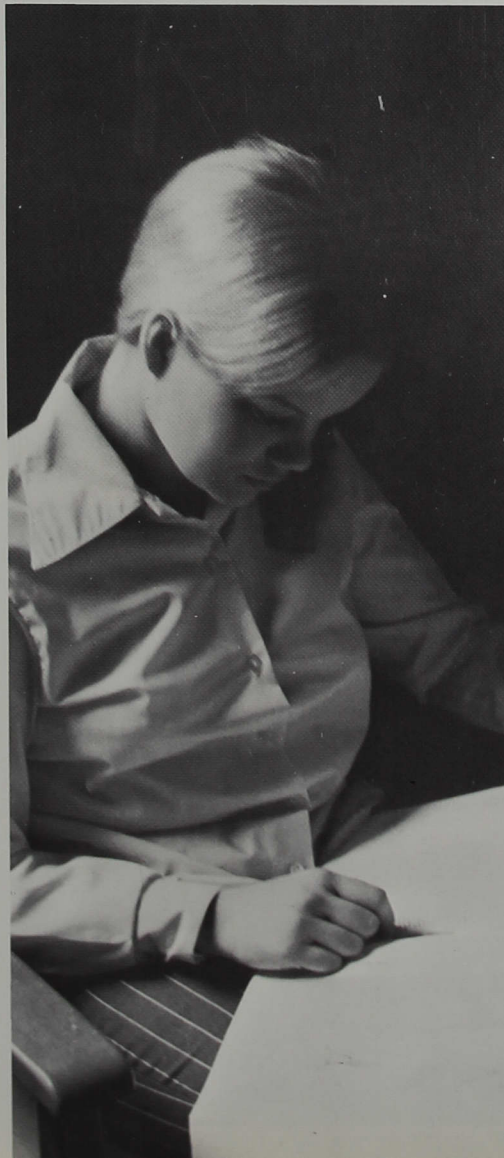

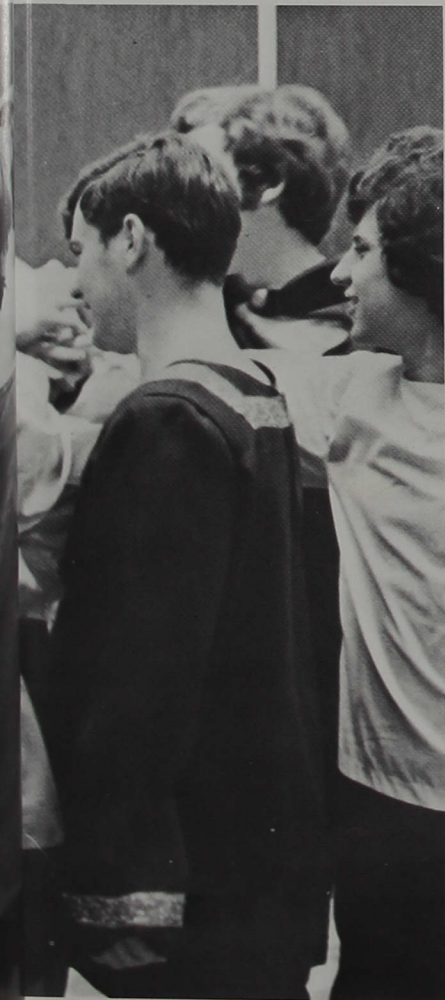

Toni Johnson

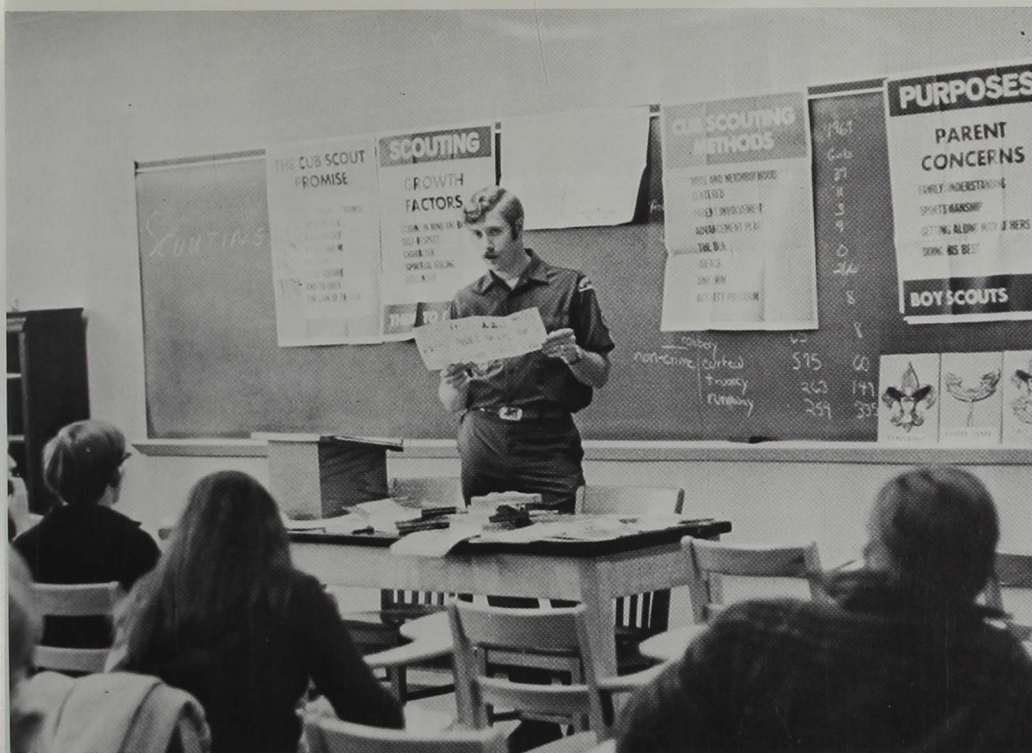

"Overall, I think at Central there is a lack of communication between the students and faculty."

John Fisher

"Indiana Central has given me goals I didn't know I had.
This year has definitely been a learning experience."

Gay Moore

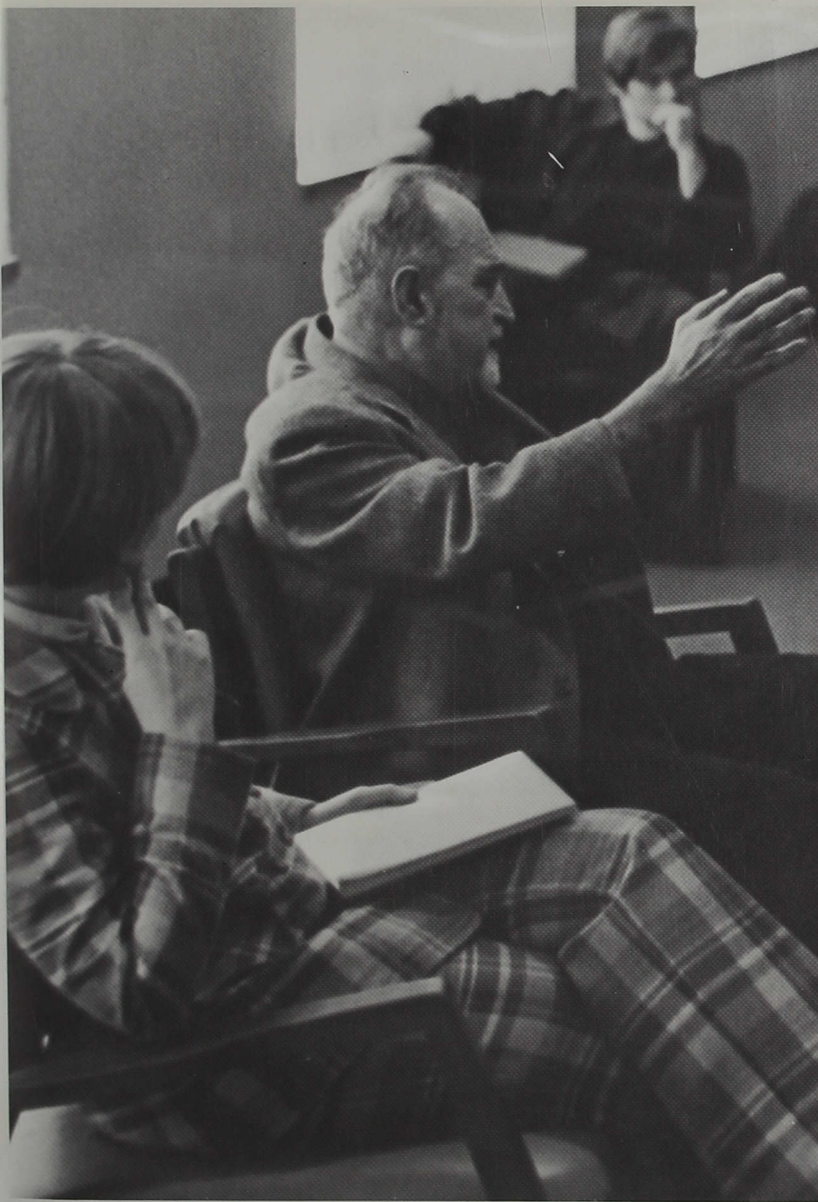

"I went to college to get out of the high school atmosphere, and found myself back in high school."

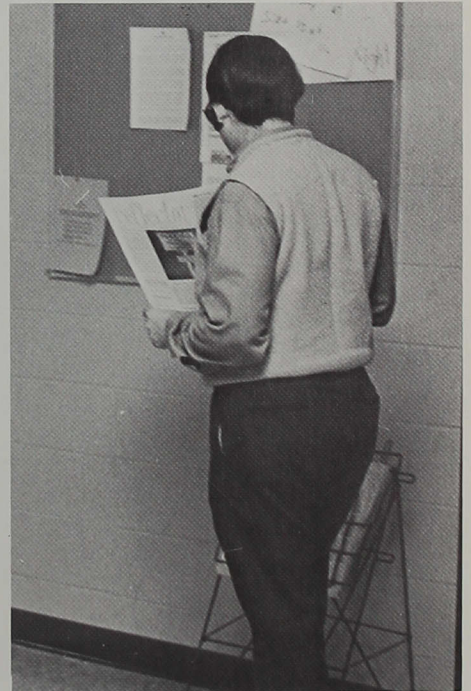

Sharon Grable

"Central wasn't ready for us, and we sure weren't ready for Central."

Kathy, Paula, Jane

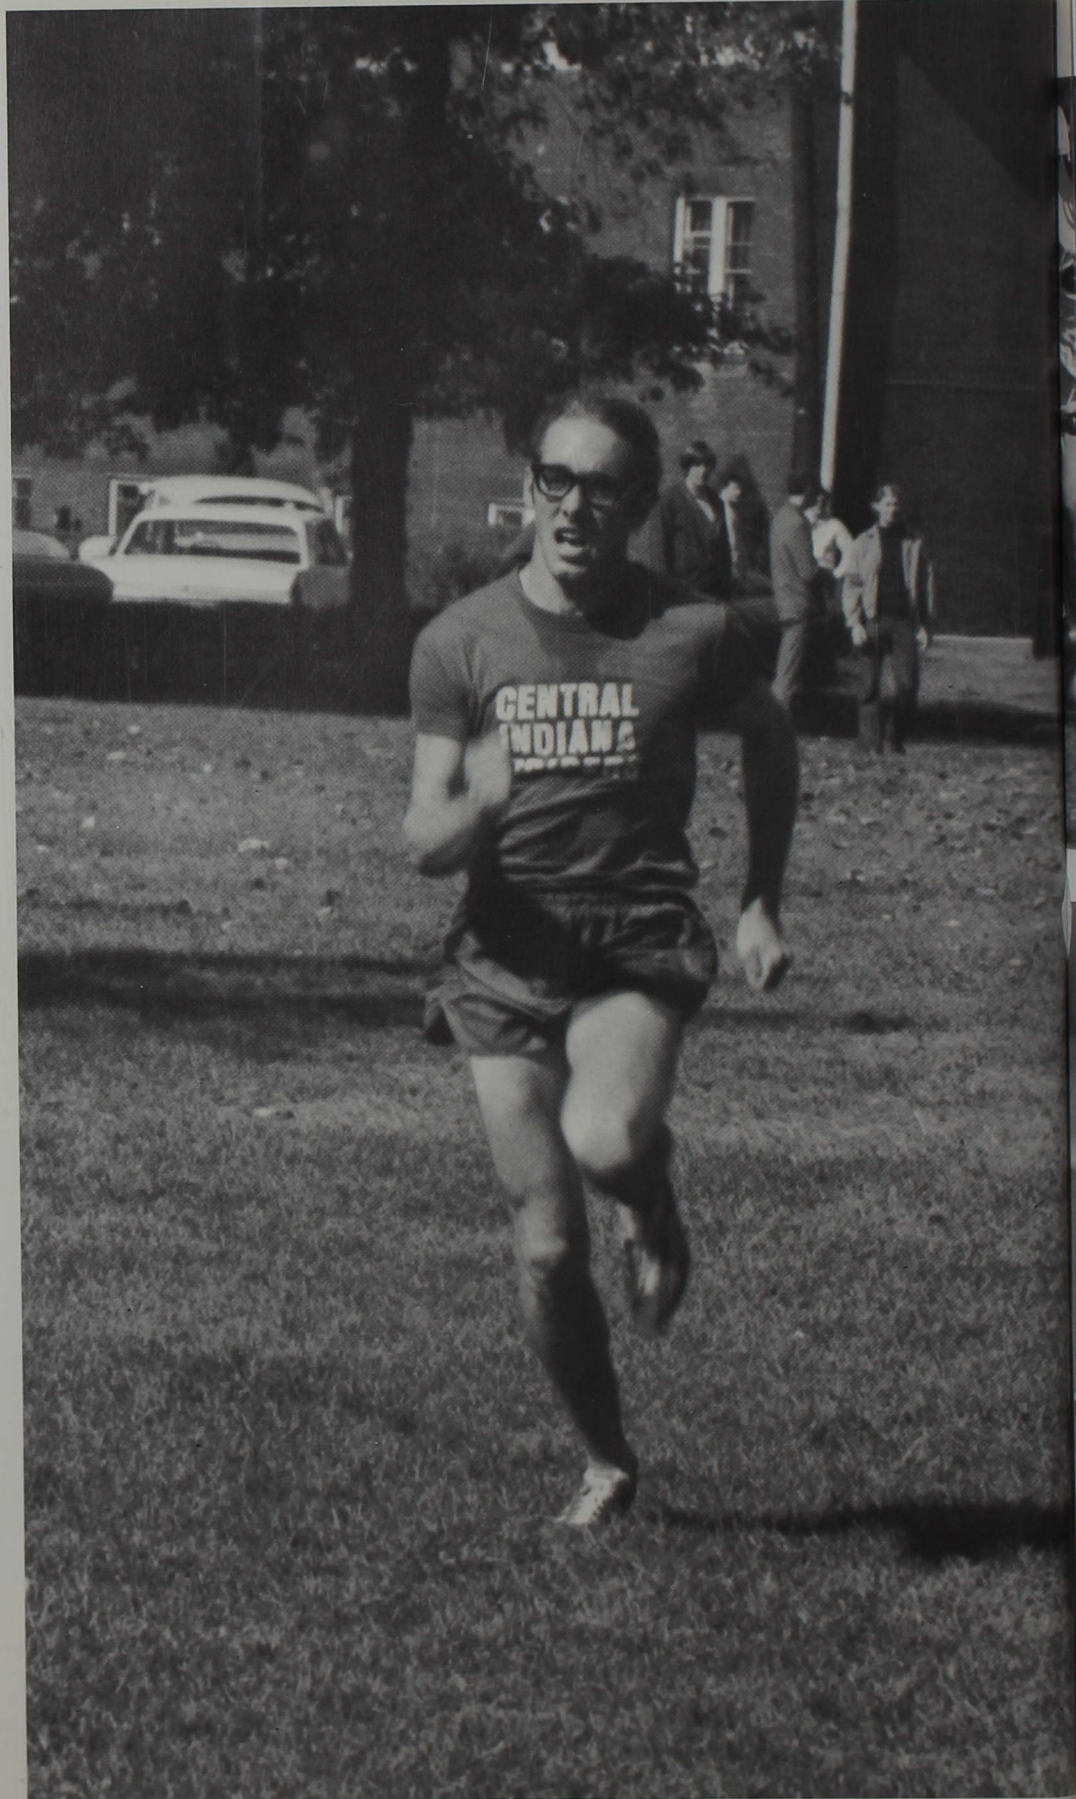

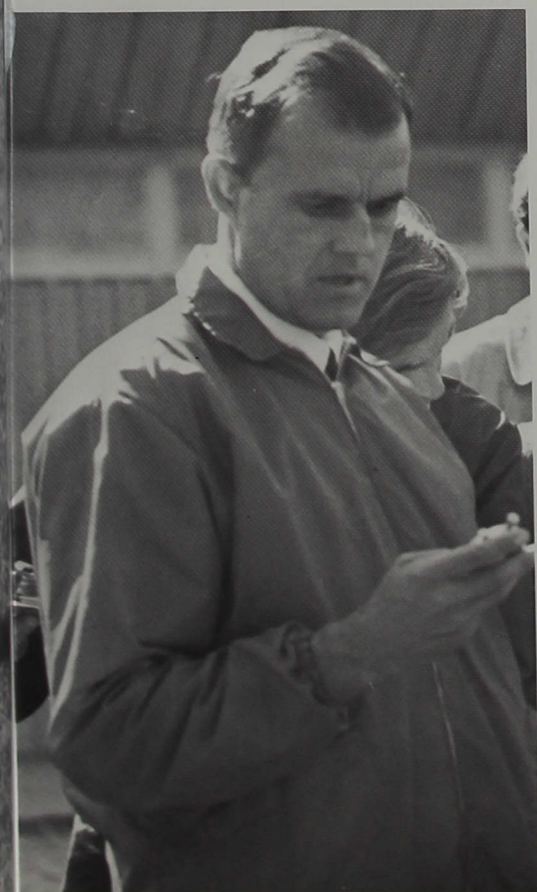

"I was never really impressed with colleges, mainly because I have never really been impressed with the society we live in. Priorities have been reversed. They should be placed on learning, not on the social status going to college gives you."

Grizzlies, chew up

By DAL CAMPBELL

Elephants aren't the only ones known for their memories. . . so are Grizzlies, especially the Franklin College basketball variety.

The Grizzlies remembered well how they had almost defeated unbeaten Taylor last Saturday and it was unfortunate for the hosting Indiana Central Greyhounds Tuesday in Indianapolis.

The bitter memory led the Grizzlies to a 97-88 victory over the Greyhounds.

The Grizzlies had Greyhound mentor Angus Nicoson in a tizzy with their awesome offense and control of the boards, especially in the first half when they at time opeied up an 18-point lead. "Nick" spent most of the first half shuffling and reshuffling plays onto the court in a vain attempt to get a combination that would click.

During that first 10-minute stretch "Nick's" starters netted nine points between them and Van Fell of the Grizzlies took care of that item by popping five of six jumpers for 10 points. Actually the Grizzlies led the way after Jeff Lancaster's opening jumper.

Dave Williams of the Greyhounds did knot the score 2-2 but Lancaster hit again followed by Dan Moore, Fell and Evan "Big Cat" Williams for

Greyhounds' Win 400th For Nicoson

By DON SNIDER

Dr. Gene E. Sease, the president of Indiana Central College, has a lot of confidence in his basketball coach.

His coach is Angus Nicoson, so it's obvious why.

Nicoson got his 400th career coaching victory last night in 24 seasons at the Southside school as the Greyhounds pulled out a thrilling 83-82 decision over Wabash's Little Giants in the I.C. gym.

That puts Nicoson up there in some pretty elite company. He ranks ninth in the nation among all college net coaches.

"I knew he'd win this one," Dr. Sease said in the locker-room as Nicoson was accepting congratulations. "I had the date already put on the plaque and this game marked on my schedule."

Dr. Sease awarded Nicoson with a plaque titled "The 400 Award" immediately after the game. Nicoson's wife, Bea, helped Dr. Sease make the presentation, which was a surprise to both Angus and Bea.

Ed Zeigler, the Greyhounds' 6-2 senior forward, hit a 15-foot jumper with 3 seconds left to win it. But that didn't come as a surprise to some people.

Notably Busty Nichols, the Wabash coach. "We beat Central by two points last year when he (Zeigler) missed a last-second shot," he said. "You don't expect him to miss two in a row."

Indeed, Zeigler doesn't usually miss two in a row. He and ages more than 20 points a game and last night they were again the Greyhounds' 1-2 knockout punch. Wabash led by as much as 12 points in the first half, but Jones scored 15 points and Zeigler 14 in the second half to lead the I.C. rally. Zeigler wound up with 21 points and Jones and center Mark Whiteman each 19. I.C. hit 60.5 per cent from the field the second half.

Central actually went ahead by 10 points with 6 minutes left in the game. But Wabash's sensational freshman, Jack Roubush, and senior Lee Fouts helped the Giants into an 82-81 lead with 10 seconds left. Central had the ball and Nicoson called time out and mapped the strategy.

"They had two options," he said, "the first was to pass in to Bill Smock, the second was to pass to Mark Whiteman. Either one was to pass to Zeigler or Jones cutting down the side. I wanted them to shoot." Whiteman got the pass in an you've already read the rest.

Roubush, who starred at Hamilton Southeastern (near Noblesville) last year and is a ran for Vance Hartke's Senate seat, is gonna be a good one—when he gets the ball more. The well-built 5-10 guard hit his first six field attempts, a couple of from 25 feet out and a couple on fancy drives to shoot Wabash into an 18-6 early lead.

But too much of the night he stood out near the time line while the other four guys played like he wasn't in the game. It seemed from the stands that Roubush could've had 30 points or more. As it was, he hit 9 of 14 fielders and scored 23 points.

Nicoson's 400th victory puts I.C. at 6-5 this season. Wabash is now 6-6.

It was "home sweet home" for the Marian Knights last night, but the Indiana Central Greyhounds would say "nuts" to that old expression.

Randy Stahley scored 35 points in his final home basketball game for Marian as the Knights crushed Rose-Hulman, 100-76.

It also was a fond farewell for the Knights' coach, Cleon Reynolds, who is retiring after this season. He was honored at half-time.

Stahley, a 6-foot-2 senior forward from Roncalli High School, raised his average to 20.2 as the Knights built their record to 6-12.

RAVENS' SPECIALTY—Tim Miller, the Anderson Ravens' scoring scorer, goes up for an easy two points in the second of Saturday night's victory over Indiana Central, 93-74. Miller keyed the Ravens' high-scoring machine with 29 points. The Ravens snapped a 17-game losing streak at the hands of the Greyhounds. but Lipps hit a pair from the charity stripe and Mike Holcomb, with the great body control, drilled a pair of jumpers to widen the gap to 33-21 again. Just before the half ended Franklin had opened up a 48-30 lead before Greyhound sub Norman Steele lopped four off the lead.

In the second half, "Big Cat" got untracked for the Grizzlies and poured in 22 of his game high 31 points.

"Cat" also hauled in 18 big rebounds to lead Franklin to a 59-41 lead in this vital department.

In the first half the Grizzlies outbounded their hosts 33-17, or nearly 2-1.

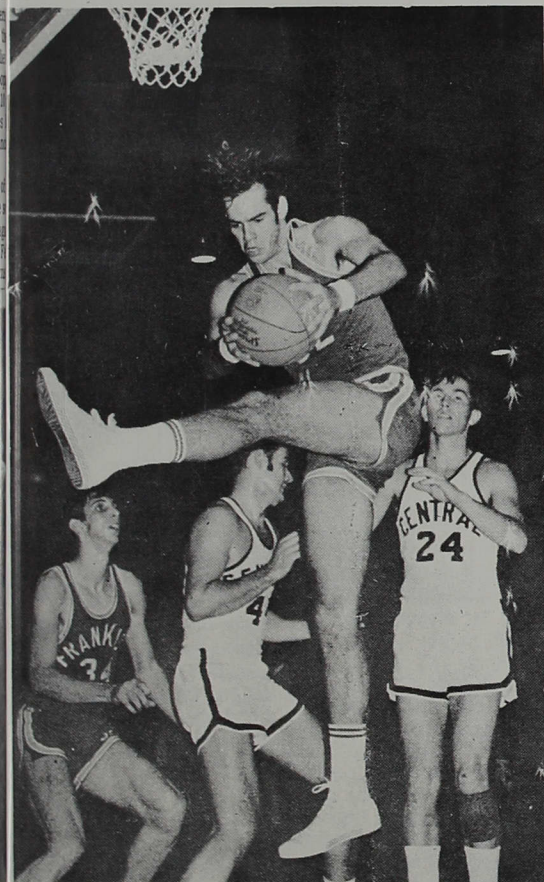

In the first half the Grizzlies outbounded their hosts 33-17, or nearly 2-1.

For the game Franklin shot at a 40 per cent clip on 35-88 while I.C. came back from a miserable 16-44 in the first half to drill 19-40 after intermission for a 40.7 mark on 35-86.

At the charity stripe where the issue was decided the Grizzlies drilled 27-33 including 9-9 for Lipps and 7-8 for the "Cat."

The Grizzlies also broke the 'Hounds press to pieces, ala Jerry West, as they just gave the ball to either Lipps or Fell and then got out of the way with the first time ending in Lipps driving the length of the floor, through the key and in for an unmolested lay-in.

Coach Ed Thompson will take his 3-3 crew to Richmond Saturday to do battle with Earlham's 5-2 Quakers.

STAR STATE REPORT

Richmond, Ind. — Earlham's Quakers shot to the front early and kept going to trim Indiana Central here last night, 99-86, in a college basketball feature. It was the 14th straight victory for Earlham.

The Quakers moved to a 16-2 record for the season by zipping to a 55-42 lead in the first half and then playing on even terms with the Greyhounds of Indianapolis through the second half.

DAVE GRAY PUMPED in 27 points to set the pace for the Quakers and he had ample and Ed Zeigler notched 22 for the 'Hounds. Todd Jones chipped in 17 more, yet it wasn't enough to stop the flying Quakers. Indiana Central dropped to an 8-9 record with the loss.

The Greyhounds finished ahead only on the boards, taking the rebound battle, 47-45.

Short Greyhounds Need More Hustle

By DON SNIDER

Angus Nicoson warned 'em. "Let's move out there," the Indiana Central coach exhorted his Greyhounds from the bench.

It took only seven minutes for Nicoson to decide that they weren't heeding his plea, so he jerked all five starters, who had fallen behind Franklin College's Grizzlies last night in the I.C. gym.

Central trailed, 21-9, with 13 minutes left in the first half when the second platoon went in. Before the half was over, 15 Greyhounds had seen action. The subs allowed Franklin to add only one more point to the margin and at the intermission stop it was 49-36.

The starters went back in for the second half and nearly pulled the game out before eventually losing, 97-88.

"We've got to move, we've got to hustle to do the things we need to do to win," Nicoson said afterwards, "I didn't see anyone out there (among the starters) moving, so I took them all out. I don't usually do that."

In an era when the 6-6 or 6-7 frontline men are commonplace in high school, Nicoson is having to go with a college trio up front who measure only 6-4, 6-3 and 6-2. It's safe to say that at least half the high school teams in Marion County can match that size, at least.

The Greyhounds have some pretty fair shooters, but rebounds, needless to say, do come easily when they're hustling. Franklin, although slightly taller, was out rebounding I.C. by about a 2 to 1 ratio when Nicoson pulled his starters.

Nicoson's tactics allowed him to substitute to come into his own and got his starters hustling in the second half. Norman Steele, a skinny 6-foot-3 junior from Bainbridge, came in and scored 15 points in the first half and 10 in the second for a team game high of 25.

Zeigler's 29 Trip Trojans

Indiana Central, trailing 54-47 at the half, surged into a 90-89 lead with 2:06 left in the game, then survived a Taylor rally to turn back its former HCC rival, 105-101, in overtime at the I.C. gym last night.

Ed Zeigler, who vaulted the Greyhounds into their 90-89 lead, slammed in four overtime points and paced the winners with 29.

Indiana Central, winning for the 10th time in 21 starts, capitalized on Taylor ball-handling errors to overcome a 61-59 rebounding deficit.

Playing without high-scoring guard Steve Reash, Taylor hit 35 of 83 field attempts (.422). Indiana Central cashed in on 41 of 105 (.390).

Todd Jones added 26 points for the Greyhounds, who also got 14 from John Layman, 12 from Norm Steele and 11 from Bill Smock. Smock led the squad with 9 rebounds.

Gary Rickner was high for Taylor, 15-9, with 32 points while teammates Scott Parsons and Randy Aalbregetse had 21 and 18, respectively. Parsons also snared a game-high 22 rebounds.

Indiana Central's Victory Puts Nicoson In 400 Club

Indiana welcomed Indiana Central basketball Coach Angus Nicoson to the 400 club today. Nicoson collected the 400th victory of his college coaching career as the Greyhounds topped Wabash 83-82 in Indianapolis Tuesday night. Nicoson has 213 losses and his overall record for 24 years of college high school coaching shows 1,059 victories.

Where, Ball State poured Dubuque 95-70 in Muncie. Nicoson led the Greyhounds to a 101-79 victory over Terre Haute. Oakland City defeated Cumberland 107-79.

FINE FRESHMEN HURT

I.C.'s Seniors Win Pat

By DON SNIDER

Angus Nicoson becomes a little envious when he sees all the fine freshmen basketball players around.

But the Indiana Central coach can point with pride to some of his seniors who have stuck it out for four years to play for the Southside school.

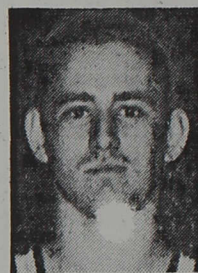

"That Laker is some boy, I think he's better at this stage than Mark Gabriel was," Nicoson said last night, referring to Dennis Laker, Hanover's 6-foot-6 freshman center.

Laker, who looks a lot like the Indiana Pacers' Bob Netolicky, scored 34 points, but his Hanover Panthers dropped an 88-83 decision to Central's Greyhounds in the I.C. gym.

Laker, from Batesville, was one of three Hanover freshmen to see action. The other two, both 6-6 and from Carmel, were Dean Ransom, who started and scored 10 points, and Bob Thornberry, who scored two points in a brief appearance.

Nicoson has no freshmen on his varsity, although he has a couple of good ones available like 6-6 Darl Hall of Northfield and 6-5 Rex Sager of Loo-gootee's 1970 state finalists. It has nothing to do with Central entering the Indiana Collegiate Conference, where freshmen aren't eligible, next year.

"I hesitate in breaking a boy too fast," said Nicoson. "One team back in '57 had four freshmen on it, but few have since."

Nicoson started four seniors last night and they combined with two juniors and a sophomore to produce the hard-earned victory on balanced teamwork.

Ed Zeigler, 6-2 senior forward, and Todd Jones, 6-0 senior guard, led the scoring as usual with their long bombs that produced 27 and 18 points, respectively. But a key player was little (5-9) Mike Conner, a senior starter who was little-used until this season.

"Mike played a good game, the whole ball game," said

Klein, who's six inches taller than Conner, riddled the net from outside in the first half for 18 points, hitting 8 of 10 shots. But Nicoson switched the Greyhounds from a zone to a man-to-man defense the second half and Conner held Klein to 10 points, most of them scored underneath.

Juniors Norm Steele, 10 points, and Ross Furry, 2 points, and soph John Layman, 10 points, were also instrumental in the victory, which was close all the way although Central trailed much of the second half.

Both teams were hot after the half with Hanover hitting .524 and Central .500. Hanover, which had some outstanding teamwork for four straight years with Mark Gabriel and 6-6 Rob St. Pierre, is 5-8 in a rebuilding year.

Central upped its record to 7-6, with four tough road games ahead, starting with 10-2 Taylor Saturday night.

Franklin, Ind. — Franklin's four-man balance offset Indiana Central's one-man show last night as the Grizzlies gunned down the Greyhounds, 84-74.

Ed Zeigler, I.C.'s top scorer, pumped in 40 points but F.C.'s Jeff Lancaster, Don Lipps, Dan Fell and Evan Williams combined for 65—including 11 straight in the final 2 minutes that turned a tight game into a breeze.

Zeigler, a senior forward averaging 21.1, potted 18 of 28 throws and 4 free throws in his basket mastery.

LANCASTER, a freshman guard from Southport, threw in 25 points—19 coming in the second half. Lipps drilled 11 of 12 free throws and finished with 15 points while Williams

I.C. Beats Marian; Each Has 1 Left

Indiana Central gets a last chance to finish above .500 for the season and Marian gets a shot at winning one last game for retiring coach Cleon Reynolds before basketball concludes for another year at the two city colleges.

They held their annual cross-town skirmish at I.C. last night and the Greyhounds won, 80-74.

Greyhound Grapplers Winning Place In Sun

By ROBIN MILLER

At Indiana Central, where basketball has reigned supreme for decades, there has been another sport with just as many impressive statistics but it's been kept a pretty good secret.

It's composed of 14 guys who spend five months a year practicing in a little sweatbox of a room, performing before 200 people trying to win an 8-minute battle of mind and muscle.

Truly wrestling is the phantom sport in athletics today but at Central the lack of fan involvement and press clippings hasn't kept the Greyhounds from becoming a small college power.

FIRST-YEAR coach Terry Wetherald, whose office is — like the sport — buried in the gym's basement, was asked what makes somebody want to wrestle.

"I really don't know why," said the former North Vernon and Pike mentor. "It's something about competing by yourself or just the desire for combat. But it's very hard to relate."

Steve Palmore, a two-time HCC champion who's been resting for nine years commented that, "he didn't even see wrestling but he just had to do it."

Regardless of the reasons, the Hounds are off to a great start. Before moving to the ICC this season, Central captured the HCC crown five out of the last six years (finishing second the other one).

SO FAR THIS year they have in two out of the three multi-tournaments and their record is 5-1. One of those victories was the Little State and even though they don't officially keep team points, the Greyhounds beat every team in the state (with the exception of the Big 3).

"We were more than happy to get involved in the ICC competition," says Wetherald, "because for awhile we didn't have anything to point to. Now we're after a great record, an ICC title, and a chance to be seeded at the Nationals."

Willoughby

Ott

those six have compiled a 40-6 mark.

Palmore, besides his two HCC crowns, has been Little State champ twice, has a career record of 29-8-3, went to the Olympic trials his freshman year and is currently 8-0 in the 118-pound class.

OTT, ALSO a two-time HCC champion, had 16 consecutive wins last year, 22 victories in the 1968-69 campaign, has a career mark of 42-6 and is rolling along at 7-1 in his 142-pound division.

Yanney, at 167 pounds, is unbeaten this year at 8-0 and his college record is 24-13-1. Willoughby (134) has three-year stats of 21-9-3 and he is currently 7-1. Young (150) is 5-2 and posted 18 wins and 4 losses last year.

Hodges in his first year at 126 is a respectable 5-2 and Wetherald believes he will be a future star.

Joe Mom (190) and Brad Cowan (158) are both lettermen and they are 4-3 and 3-4 respectively. Jay Hawk is a freshman at heavyweight and his 1-6 mark is indicative of inexperience. Rick Hoffman just recently returned at 177 following an injury.

WETHERALD doesn't give pep talks so to speak but he explains how he communicates with his team.

"We all get together with our heads in a circle on the mat and talk things over. I think they might have thought it was kind of high-schoolish at first but they remind now when it's time to talk. It gives us a chance to be one and sometimes it gets quite vocal," he smiles.

"We also have a prayer before our match but it isn't for victory."

Wetherald has also installed some special awards for his troops. For example, the person displaying the most ability to end up on his back during the week, receives the Gupple Award.

But so far not too many Central wrestlers have spent much time looking up.

see how anybody but Indiana Central can win the ICC championship," says Evansville coach Nick Voris. "The Hoosier Conference is far stronger (in wrestling) than the ICC."

Evansville, in its third year of intercollegiate wrestling, was second to Valparaiso in last year's tourney. The Aces' top performers are Dave Swindle and Earl Wolf, who won ICC championships last year. Swindle is the defending 134-pound champion, while Wolf has moved up to the 126-pound division after winning the league's 118-pound title

ICC wrestlers gather tomorrow at Carson Center

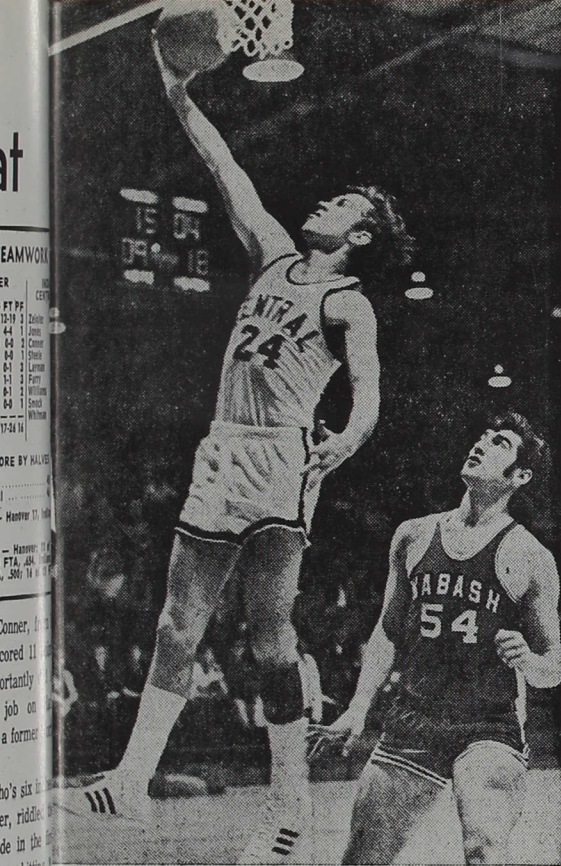

Indiana Central's wrestling team will be a heavy favorite to pin the field tomorrow when the Indiana Collegiate Conference wrestling tournament is conducted at Carson Center on the University of Evansville campus.

Ind. Central Should Run Off With Wrestling Crown

So powerful is Indiana Central's wrestling team it will be regarded as a major surprise if anyone comes close to the Greyhounds in the Indiana Collegiate Conference tournament.

Yanney, who won the HCC 167-pound championship last year, also has won 12 of 13 matches this season. Willoughby is 9-1.

Eight wrestlers who won ICC championships last year, also have won 12 of 13 matches this season.

Greyhounds Top Hanover Again

By Associated Press

Indiana Central made it two in a row over Hanover's Panthers while Marian College allowed Manchester to snap a 10-game losing streak in Hoosier college basketball action last night.

Central, which had lost two in a row since beating Hanover, 88-83, three weeks ago at home, routed the young Panthers, 90-78, on the losers' court. Ed Zeigler tossed in 28 points as the Greyhounds won their seventh game against eight de-lor, 0-3, sank to a tie with Manchester in the HCC cellar.

Western Michigan stunned Ball State, 111-94, Bethel beat Olivet, Ill., 107-106, and Vincennes downed Edison, Fla., 130-94. The Trailblazers notched their 22nd straight victory.

Pat Malone hit two free throws to put Tech ahead for good, 71-70 with 1:38 left to play in Fort Wayne. Tri-State held a 40-35 halftime lead. Steve Hensen topped the winners with 32 points and Roy Charleswood led Tri-State with 24.

Greyhounds Top Baldwin-Wallace

Indiana Central, leading all the way and ruling the keyboards, defeated Baldwin-Wallace College last night, 99-83, in the University Heights gymnasium.

Sophomores exhibit a variety of pleasing entertainment

Providing entertainment and talent of every type imaginable, the sophomore talent show was an enormous success. Dividing the show into segments, students performed, sang, danced and provided comedy skits . . . keeping the entire audience completely involved for the total program . . . involved . . . not just the audience but every member of the cast. The sophomores were a very together/close group and their enthusiasm seemed to radiate . . . making their show a great accomplishment for all.

May

Highlighting the season with one of the most beautiful programs during the school year, May Festival brought the crowning of Linda Smith as May Festival Queen. Sponsored by the physical education department, majors and minors helped with props, costumes, and set design. Also all acts were created and brought to life by the physical ed. students. Special entertainment was provided by several special guests.

Business students are honored

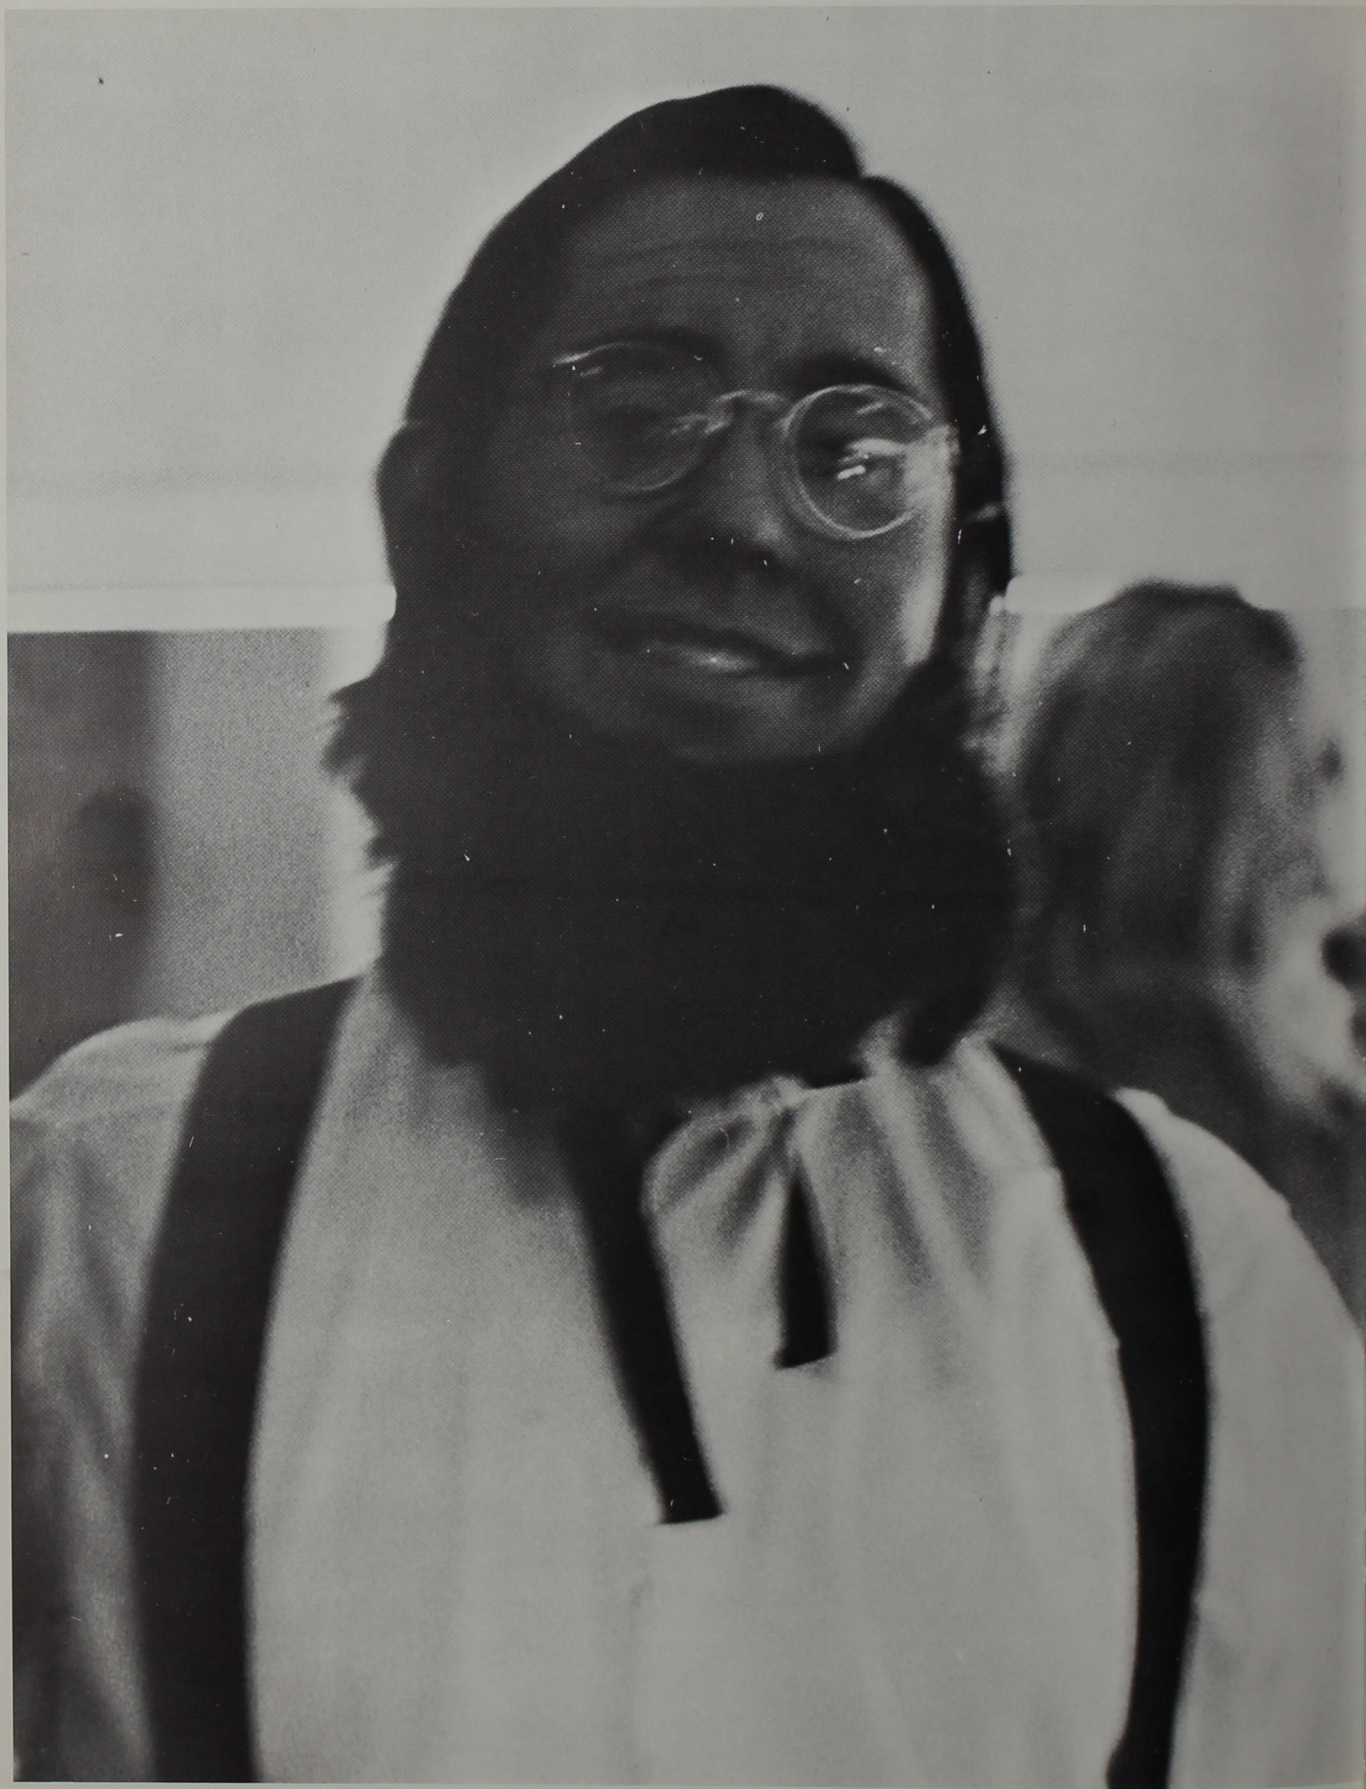

President Gene Sease spoke at the Spring Banquet for all members of the Student for Advancement of Management. President John Davis and his officers were presented awards and they in turn presented awards to other members of their Business Club. The banquet which honored all business majors and minors was a successful and very deserving highlight for all involved.

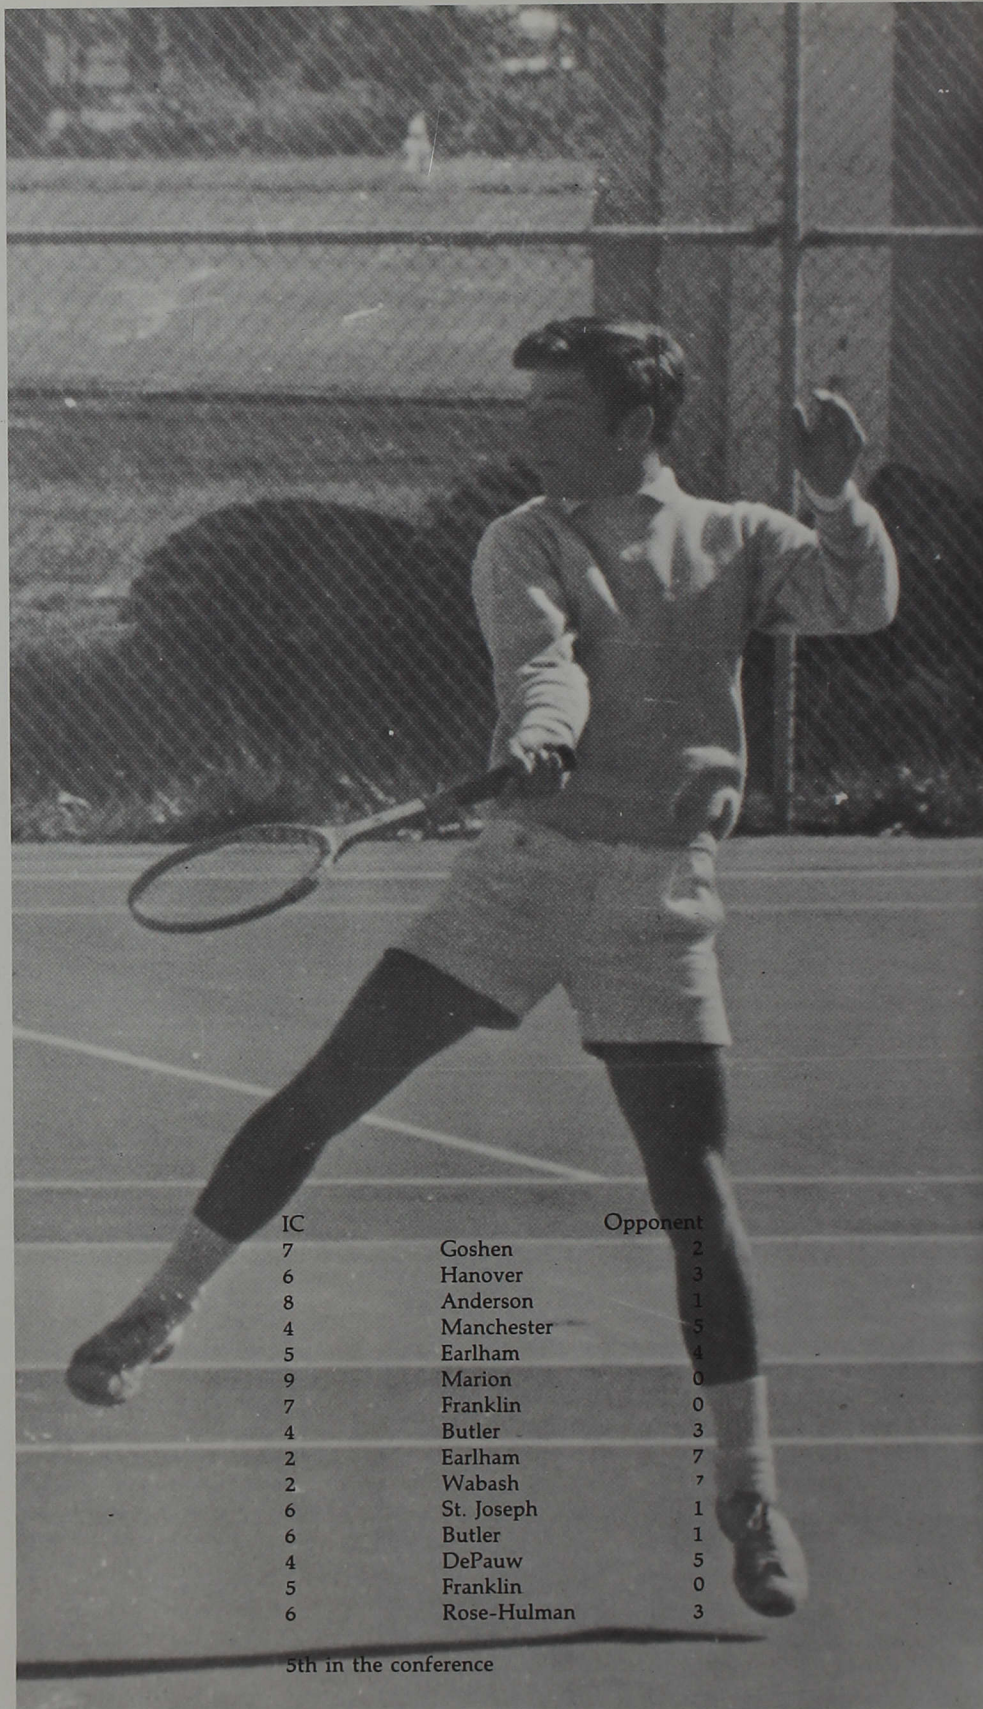

at spring banquet

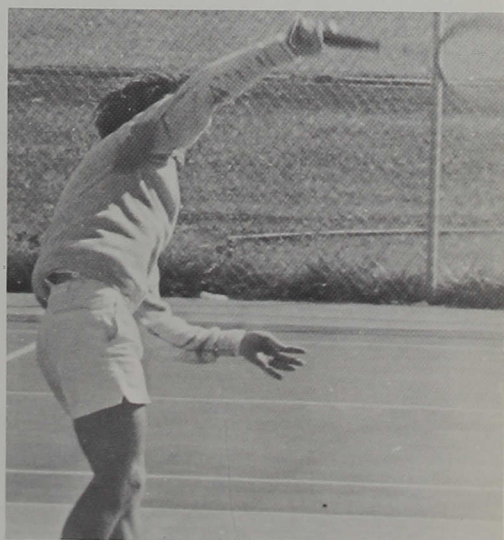

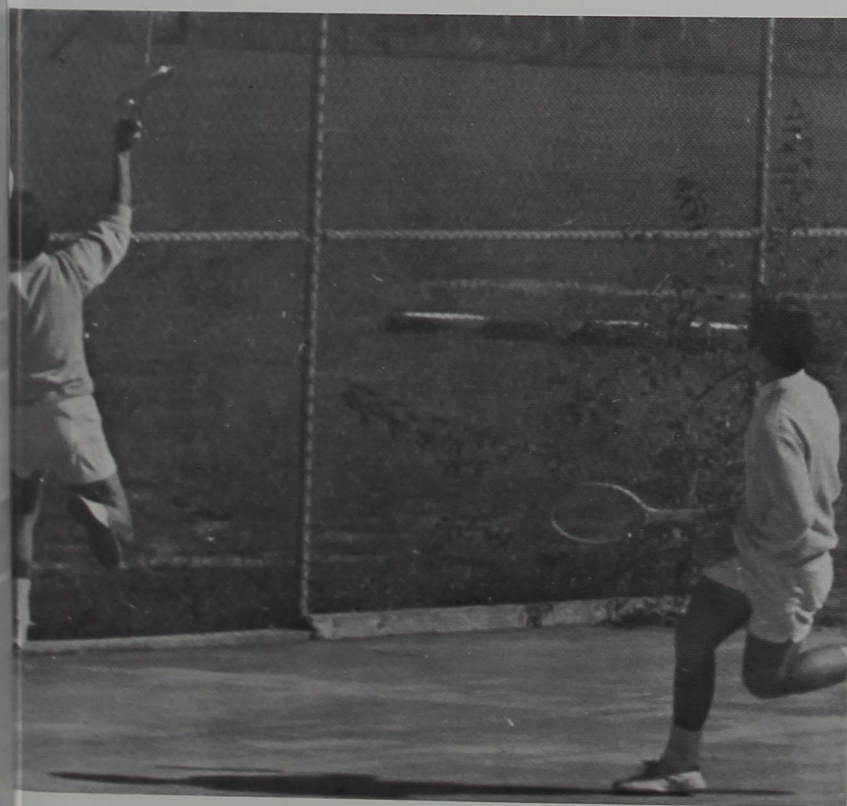

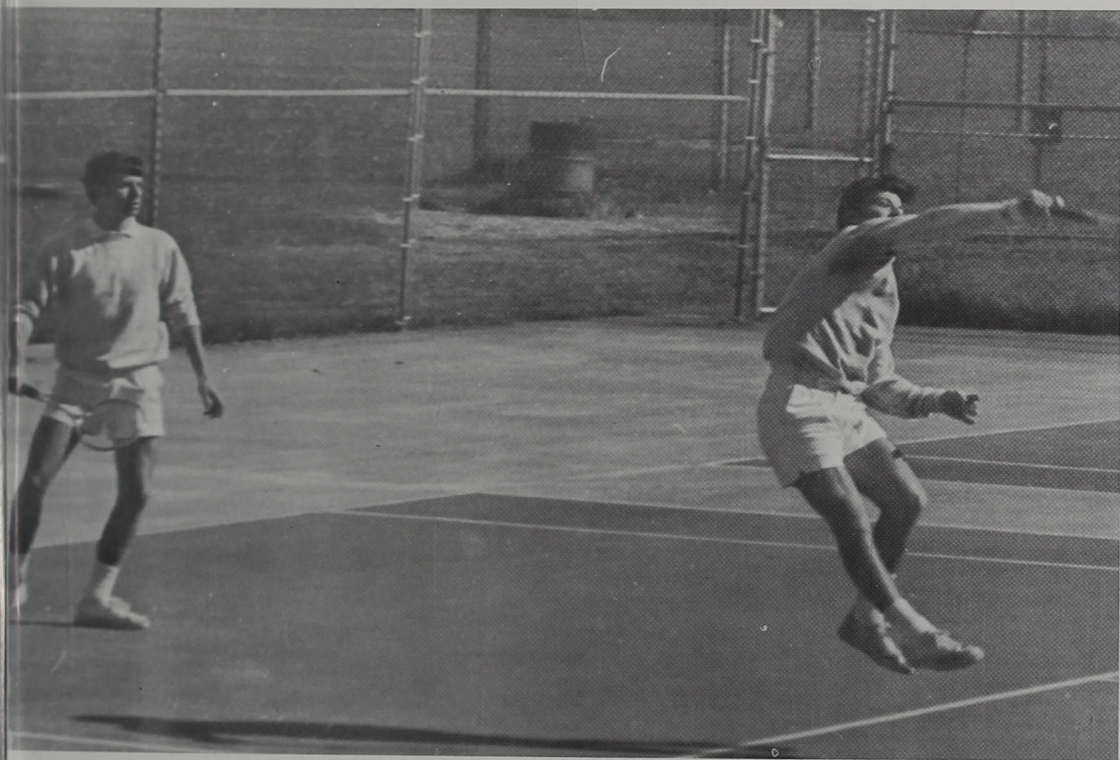

Presenting several excellent major productions, represented by talented cast and beautiful set design, the drama club became extremely involved during the school year. Romeo and Juliet presented during the Spring developed and transformed from a very doubtful origin into an accomplished play and successful follow up to last years Hamlet; the play that sent the cast to England. Casting two students with no previous acting experience, Linda Potter and Robert Biggs, the play became another success and fantastic accomplishment for Mr. Williams who built the department from just a few interested students into an accomplished well-trained group. A group that has earned a reputation to which all can be proud.

Mayor Richard Lugar presides at graduation ceremony

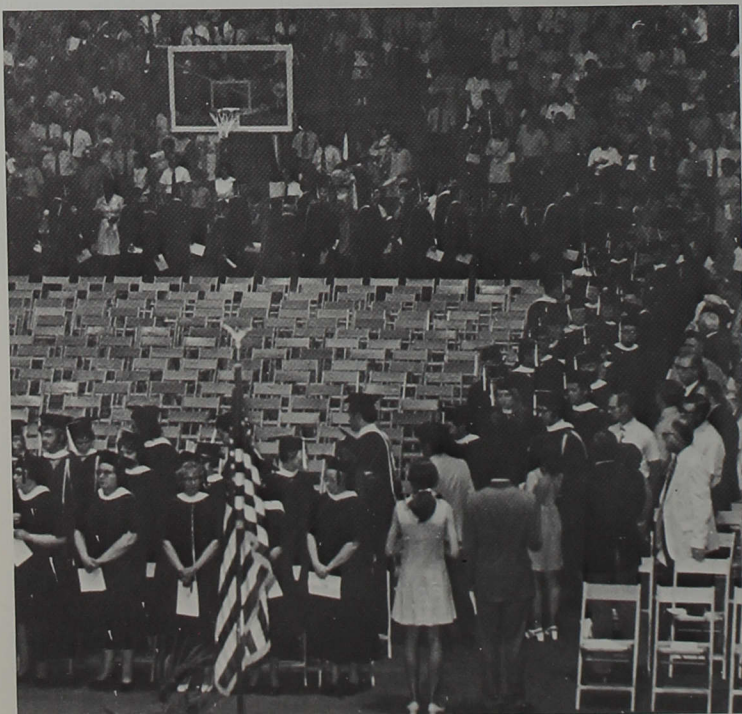

Using a well-worn and trite phrase once again, Graduation Ceremonies marked an ending as well as a renewed beginning for the 1971 Seniors . . . marking an end to their college career and a beginning to the career they begin outside, teaching, working secretarial jobs or serving Uncle Sam. Four years is supposed to provide the knowledge to enable one to create their lifetime vocation. The step is a huge one nevertheless.

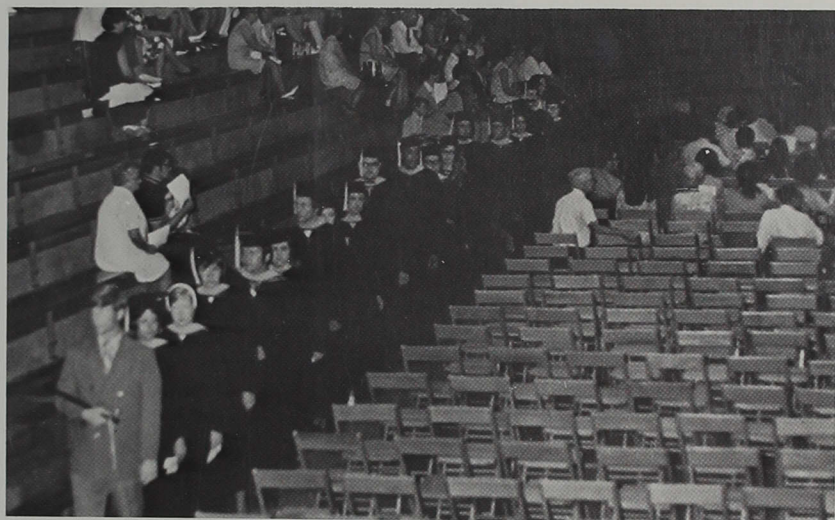

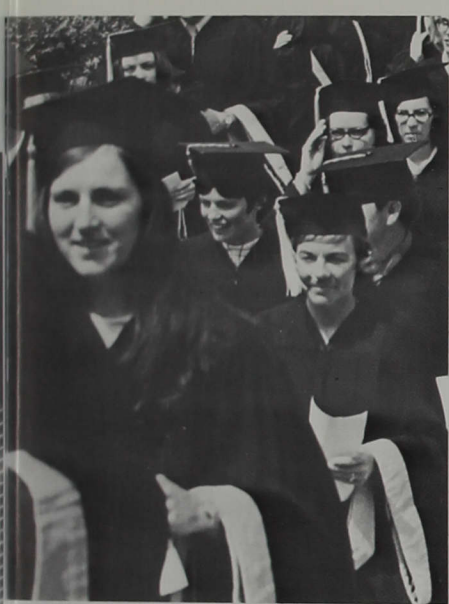

Mayor Lugar honored the Seniors with their graduation address. Although the gymnasium was terribly hot, the ceremony was one to be remembered by the Seniors not only as a formal end to their education but a beginning to the real life.

Death takes the lives of two Central students

Death is a beginning as well as an ending. It can be a reunion as well as a parting. Death's pressure comes always with fear and deep sadness and it is dressed sometimes with noble dignity or animal degradation. Death has many faces, but its steps are always deeply treaded—For with its passing, it leaves the life of memory and tender thought that grows and grows.

Larry Zartman was killed instantly in a one car accident in Hamilton County. The youth was a passenger in a car driven by Terry Bushing of Carmel, also a student at Indiana Central.

A 1970 graduate of Caston Educational Center, Larry was an outstanding athlete at Caston, having starred in football, basketball and track. He won honors as the outstanding athlete at Caston in 1970, and was named a member of the 1970 All-Loganland Team.

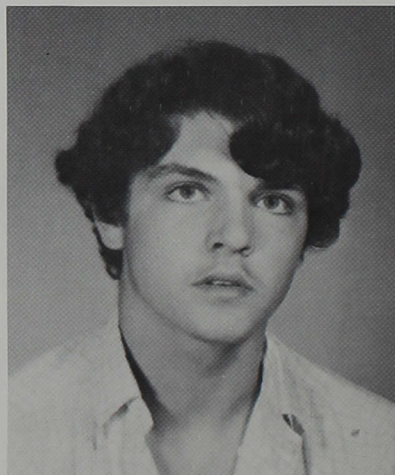

He won three letters in basketball, three in baseball, one in football and one in track. He also received an award as outstanding athlete from the Twelve Mile Lions Club.

At Central, Larry was a major in the pre-dental program and was also a member of the college junior varsity basketball team.

Margaret L. Dekruyter also began her freshman year at Central, leaving second semester to enroll at Indiana University. Margaret was a music major, with a major in voice and a minor in piano.

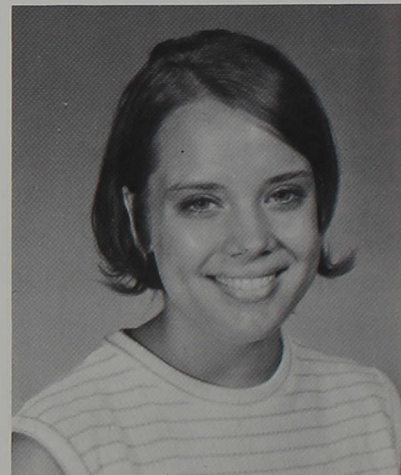

Margaret died from gas asphyxiation in her home when the family car was left running in the garage connected to the main building. Margaret died in her sleep. Her mother was also a victim in the accident.

The students at Central felt a great loss over the deaths of these two students. Deepest sympathy is sent to the parents and relatives.

"Death, thy servant is at my door. He has crossed the unknown sea and brought thy call to my home.

The night is dark and my heart is fearful—yet I will take up the lamp, open my gates and bow to him my welcome. It is thy messenger who stands at my door.

I will worship him with folded hands, and with tears. I will worship him placing at his feet the treasure of my heart.

He will go back with his errand done, leaving a dark shadow on my morning . . ."
 Tagore, from GITanjali, LXXXVI
